CERTIFIED MAIL-RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Mrs. Dora Mata

Dear Mrs. Mata:

This letter is written in response to your letter of January 27, 1966, protesting the name of Mabel Dixie as the person being eligible to vote on whether a plan should be made for the distribution of the assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria.

The Sheep Ranch Rancheria was purchased April 5, 1916 from William and May Cunningham by the United States Government for landless or homeless California Indians. The acquisition deed to this land is in the name of the United States of America and does not name any specific tribe, band or group of Indians. There have been no formal assignments or allotments made on the rancheria and it has always been considered to be unorganized rancheria.

The Rancheria Act, Public Law 85-671, as amended August 11, 1964, provides for the distribution of the land and assets of certain Indian reservations and rancherias in California and for other purposes. Section 12 of this amended Act authorized the Secretary of the Interior to issue such rules and regulations as he deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of the Act. The regulations became effective August 13, 1965.

Section 242.3(a) and pertinent parts of 242.3(d) of the regulations are as follows.

*(a) Unorganized rancheria or reservation. Upon receipt of a written request from an adult Indian or Indians of an unorganized rancheria or reservation for the distribution of the assets of the rancheria or reservation, the (Area) Director shall prepare a list of Indians in the following categories:

(1) Those who have allotments on the rancheria or reservation;

William

INITIALING COPY

- (2) Those who hold formal assignments;
- (3) Those who reside on the rancharia or reservation pursuant to an informal assignment;
- (4) Those not in the above categories who have resided for a period of at least three consecutive years immediately preceding receipt of the request as provided for in the introductory text of this paragraph, on the rancharia or reservation not set aside for a designated group of Indians.
- (5) The dependent members of the immediate families of those Indians in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph.

(d) When the (Area) Director is satisfied that the list is complete, he shall publish it once weekly for three successive weeks in a local newspaper. Within 15 days after the date of the last publication of the list, anyone may protest in writing the omission of a name from the list or the inclusion of any name thereon. His written protest together with arguments to sustain it shall be presented to the (Area) Director who will render his decision, which shall be final. After all protests have been heard and have been duly disposed of, the (Area) Director shall hold an election on whether the distribution of rancharia or reservation assets shall be made. * * *

A written request for the distribution of the assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancharia, an unorganized rancharia, was received from Mrs. Mabel Dixie who is presently residing on the rancharia. Mrs. Dixie meets the requirements in at least one of the above five categories. Consequently she has been determined eligible to vote on the issue of whether a distribution plan should be developed and her name has been published once weekly for three successive weeks in the Calaveras Prospect, San Andreas, California.

Your letter states "That land 'Sheepranch Rancharia' was allotted to our family in particular. Jeff Davis who was Chief at that time, his sisters Ina Hodges and family - Pinky and Johnny Tecunpach. * * * I do hope you will give this letter serious consideration especially in the view of the Indians it really and truly concerns. I am writing in hopes something can be done to save this land for my mother Lena Hodges Shelton and Tom Hodges."

A careful review of your protest has been made and it has been determined that none of the persons named in your letter meet the requirements in any of the five categories quoted above and therefore cannot qualify as a voter on the issue of preparing a distribution plan. Our records reveal that some of your relatives have resided on the rancharia in the past, but such former residence is not a determining factor in their eligibility to vote because no vested interest was acquired by anyone for merely occupying the rancharia.

This letter is your official notice that Lena Hodges Shelton and Tom Hodges have been determined to be ineligible to participate in the election to decide whether a distribution plan for the Sheep Ranch Rancharia shall be developed.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Leonard M. Hill

RESOLUTION #GC-98-01

ESTABLISHING A GENERAL COUNCIL TO SERVE AS THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE SHEEP RANCH BAND OF ME-WUK INDIANS

- WHEREAS, The Sheep Ranch Band of Me-Wuk Indians of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria of California ("the Tribe") was not terminated pursuant to the provisions of the Act of August 18, 1958, P.L. 85-671, 72 Stat. 619, as amended by the Act of August 11, 1964, P.L. 88-419, 78 Stat/ 390 ("the Rancheria Act"), and is a federally recognized Indian Tribe as confirmed by the inclusion of the Tribe in the list of Indian Entities Recognized and Eligible to Receive Services from the United States Bureau of Indian Affairs, as published in the Federal Register on October 23, 1997.
- WHEREAS, The plan of Distribution of the Assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria, approved by the Associate Commissioner of Indian Affairs on October 12, 1966, identified Mabel (Hodge) Dixie as the sole distributee entitled to participate in the distribution of the assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria;
- WHEREAS, The Bureau of Indian Affairs did not completely implement the steps necessary to effect the termination of the Tribe prior to the passing of Mabel (Hodge) Dixie;
- WHEREAS, The estate of Mabel (Hodge) Dixie was probated and Order of Determination of Heirs was issued on October 1, 1971, listing the following persons as possessing a certain undivided interest in the Sheep Ranch Rancheria:
- | | |
|-----------------------|------------------------|
| Merle Butler, husband | Undivided 1/3 interest |
| Richard Dixie, son | Undivided 1/6 interest |
| Yakima Dixie, son | Undivided 1/6 interest |
| Melvin Dixie, son | Undivided 1/6 interest |
| Tommy Dixie, son | Undivided 1/6 interest |
- and this Order was reaffirmed by another Order issued on April 14, 1993;
- WHEREAS, The surviving heirs are believed to be Yakima and Melvin Dixie, as the other heirs are or are believed to be deceased, and their heirs are in the process of requesting the estates of the deceased heirs be probated, and it is believed that the deceased heirs had no issue;
- WHEREAS, The whereabouts of Melvin Dixie are unknown;
- WHEREAS, The membership of the Tribe currently consists of at least the following individuals; Yakima Dixie, Silvia Fawn Burley, Rashel Kawehilani Reznor, Anjelica Josett Paulk, and Tristian Shawnee Wallace; this membership may change in the future consistent with the Tribe's ratified constitution and any duly enacted Tribal membership statutes.

WHEREAS, The Tribe, on June 12, 1935, voted to accept the terms of the Indian Reorganization Act (P.L. 73-383; 48 Stat. 984) but never formally organized pursuant to federal statute, and now desires to pursue the formal organization of the Tribe; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That Yakima Dixie, Silvia Fawn Burley, and Rashel Kawehilani Reznor, as a majority of the adult members of the Tribe, hereby establishes a General Council to serve as the governing body of the Tribe;

RESOLVED, That the General Council shall consist of all members of the Tribe who are at least eighteen years of age, and each member shall have one vote;

RESOLVED, That the General Council shall have the following specific powers to exercise in the best interest of the Tribe and its members:

- (a) To consult, negotiate, contract, or conclude agreements with the Bureau of Indian Affairs, for the purpose of furthering the development and adoption of a Constitution;
- (b) To administer assets received from such agreements specified in (a) above, including the power to establish bank accounts and designate signers thereupon;
- (c) To administer the day-to-day affairs related to such agreements specified in (a) above;
- (d) To develop and adopt policies and procedures regarding personnel, financial management, procurement and property management, and other such policies and procedures necessary to comply with all laws, regulations, rules, and policies related to funding received from such agreements specified in (a) above;
- (e) To employ legal counsel for the purpose of assisting in the development of the Constitution and the policies and procedures specified in (d) above, the choice of counsel and fixing of fees to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative;
- (f) To receive advice from and make recommendations to the Secretary of the Interior with regard to all appropriation estimates or federal projects for the benefit of the Tribe prior to the submission of such estimates to the Office of Management and Budget and to Congress;
- (g) To faithfully advise the General Council of all activities provided for in this resolution at each regularly scheduled meeting of the General Council;
- (h) To purchase real property and put such real property into trust with the United States government for the benefit of the Tribe;

RESOLVED, That all other inherent rights and powers not specifically listed herein shall vest in the General Council, provided that the General Council may specifically list such other rights and powers through subsequent resolution of the General Council;

RESOLVED, That the General Council shall appoint from among its members a Chairperson, who shall preside over all meetings of the General Council and rights and powers through subsequent resolutions of the General Council, provided that in the absence of the Chairperson, a Chairperson Pro Tem shall be appointed from members convening the meeting;

RESOLVED, That the Chairperson shall notice and convene regular meetings of the General Council on the second Saturday of each month following the adoption of this resolution, provided that special meetings of the General Council may be called by the Chairperson upon providing a least fifteen (15) days notice stating the purpose of the meeting;

RESOLVED, That the Chairperson shall call a special meeting of the General Council, within thirty (30) days of receipt of a petition stating the purpose of the meeting, signed by at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the General Council, and the Chairperson shall provide at least fifteen (15) days notice stating the purpose of the meeting, provided that at such meeting, it shall be the first duty of the General Council to determine the validity of the petition;

RESOLVED, That the General Council shall elect from among its members a Secretary/Treasurer, who shall record the minutes of all General Council meetings, maintain the official records of the Tribe, certify the enactment of all resolutions, and disburse all funds as ordered by the General Council;

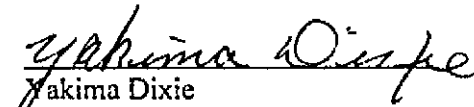

RESOLVED, That the quorum requirement for meetings of the General Council shall be conducted pursuant to Robert's Rules of Order;

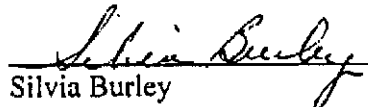

RESOLVED, That the General Council shall exist until a Constitution is formally adopted by the Tribe and approved by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative, unless this resolution is rescinded through subsequent resolution of the General Council.

CERTIFICATION

We, the undersigned as a majority of the adult members of the General Council of the Sheep Ranch Band of Me-Wuk Indians of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria of California ("the Tribe"), do hereby certify that at a duly noticed, called, and convened special meeting of the General Council held on Thursday, in Sheep Ranch, California, where a quorum was present, this resolution was adopted by a vote of 2 in favor, 0 opposed, and 0 abstaining. We further certify that this resolution has not been rescinded, amended, or modified in any way.

IN REPLY REFER TO:

SEP 24 1998

Yakima K. Dixie, Spokesperson
Sheep Ranch Rancheria
11178 School Street
Sheep Ranch, California 95250

Dear Mr. Dixie:

The purpose of this correspondence is to summarize the issues discussed during a meeting held with you and Silvia Burley on September 8, 1998, at your residence on the Sheep Ranch Rancheria in Sheep Ranch, California. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the process of formally organizing the Tribe. In attendance at this meeting from my staff was Mr. Raymond Fry, Tribal Operations Officer, and Mr. Brian Golding, Sr., Tribal Operations Specialist.

Status of the Tribe

The Sheep Ranch Rancheria is a federally recognized Tribe, as it was not lawfully terminated pursuant to the provisions of the California Rancheria Act. The California Rancheria Act provided for the termination of specific Tribes by distributing the assets of the Tribes to those persons determined eligible, and in exchange, the recipients of the assets would no longer be eligible to receive services and benefits available to Indian people. The Plan of Distribution of the Assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria, approved by the Associate Commissioner of Indian Affairs on October 12, 1966, identified your mother, Mabel (Hodge) Dixie as the sole distributee entitled to participate in the distribution of the assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria. The Distribution Plan has not been revoked.

Membership

In those situations where an "unterminated" Tribe is pursuing reorganization, the persons possessing the right to reorganize the Tribe is usually specified by the decision of the court, as the majority of "unterminated" Tribes regain federal recognition through litigation. Usually, the court decision will state that the persons possessing the right to reorganize the Tribe are those persons still living who are listed as distributees or dependent members on the federally approved Distribution Plan. In some cases the courts have extended this right of participation to the lineal descendants of distributees or dependent members, whether living or deceased.

In this case, the usual manner of determining who may reorganize the Tribe does not apply here as there is no such court decision. However, with the passing of Mabel (Hodge) Dixie, a probate was ordered, and the Administrative Law Judge issued an Order of Determination of Heirs on October 1, 1971, as reaffirmed by subsequent Order issued on April 14, 1993. The Order listed the land comprising the Sheep Ranch Rancheria as part of the estate of Mabel (Hodge) Dixie. The Order then listed the following persons as possessing a certain undivided interest in the Sheep Ranch Rancheria:

Merle Butler, husband	Undivided 1/3 interest	Deceased
Richard Dixie, son	Undivided 1/6 interest	Deceased
Yakima Dixie, son	Undivided 1/6 interest
Melvin Dixie, son	Undivided 1/6 interest
Tommy Dixie, son	Undivided 1/6 interest	Deceased

During our meeting, you explained to us that three of the heirs were deceased, and that the whereabouts of your brother, Melvin Dixie, were presently unknown.

We believe that for the purposes of determining the initial membership of the Tribe, we are held to the Order of the Administrative Law Judge. Based upon your statement that three of the heirs were deceased, the two remaining heirs are those persons possessing the right to initially organize the Tribe.

On August 5, 1998, as the Spokesperson of the Tribe, you accepted Silvia Burley, Rashel Reznor, Anjelica Paulk, and Tristian Wallace as enrolled members of the Tribe. Therefore, these persons as well, provided that they are at least eighteen years of age, possess the right to participate in the initial organization of the Tribe.

At the conclusion of our meeting, you were going to consider what enrollment criteria should be applied to future prospective members. Our understanding is that such criteria will be used to identify other persons eligible to participate in the initial organization of the Tribe. Eventually, such criteria would be included in the Tribe's Constitution.

Governance

Tribes that are in the process of initially organizing usually consider how they will govern themselves until such time as the Tribe adopts a Constitution through a Secretarial Election, and Secretarial approval is obtained. Agency staff explained two options for the consideration of the General Membership:

- 1) the members could operate as a General Council, retaining all powers and authorities, and delegating specific limited powers to a Chairperson, and

- 2) the members could form an Interim Tribal Council, and delegate from the General Council various general powers and authorities to the Interim Tribal Council.

In this case, given the small size of the Tribe, we recommend that the Tribe operate as a General Council, as described in the first option above. Enclosed for your consideration, is a draft General Council resolution (Resolution #GC-98-01) specifying general powers of the General Council and rules for governing the Tribe.

A number of the provisions of the draft resolution may be changed by the Tribe to reflect the manner in which it desires to conduct business. For instance, the first "Resolved" clause on the second page lists seven (7) specific powers to be exercised by the General Council. For the most part, this list involves those powers that the General Council would exercise in order to accomplish the initial organization process. There is no mention of other powers, such as the power to purchase land, since such a power most likely would not be used during the organization process. Rather, such a power would be used after the Tribe organizes, and would be included in the Tribe's Constitution.

Another example of a change to consider is the fourth "Resolved" clause on the second page. This clause states that regular meetings of the General Council will be held on the second Saturday of each month. The Tribe may wish to change this to a day of the week that will best meet the Tribe's needs.

Once the General Council adopted such a resolution, the General Council would then proceed to elect or appoint a Chairperson. The General Council would then be able to proceed with the conduct of business, in a manner consistent with the authorizing resolution. Additional powers can be specified by the General Council through either an amendment to the authorizing resolution, or adoption of another authorizing resolution.

Grant Funding

We discussed the fact that the Bureau of Indian Affairs makes grants, under the provisions of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, as amended, to Tribes for the purpose of strengthening or improving Tribal government and developing Tribal capacity to enter into future contracts. Such grants can be used to cover costs incurred by the Tribe in establishing a Tribal office, equipment and furniture, supplies, and legal assistance. In this case, we advised the Tribe that the first grant would be made in the amount of $50,000.

In order to apply for and receive funding from the Bureau, the Self-Determination Act requires that a Tribe indicate by resolution its desire to receive grant funding. Enclosed is a draft General Council resolution (Resolution #GC-98-02) which fulfills this requirement.

We discussed the nature of congressional appropriations regarding the funding that Tribes receive. We recommended that the Tribe consider reprogramming funds from various programs into the Consolidated Tribal Government program. Such reprogramming would then provide the Tribe with the greatest flexibility in using the funds in the upcoming year. As a result of our discussion, you provided the Agency staff present with a letter proscribing your reprogramming preferences. A copy of this letter is enclosed for your records.

Bureau Costs Associated with Organizing

We discussed the Bureau's role in providing technical assistance to Tribes in the process of organizing the Tribe. The Bureau receives some funding from each of the Tribes in our jurisdiction as a means of providing a minimum amount of technical assistance. But in those cases where a Tribe is pursuing formal organization, such funds are insufficient to cover all costs.

We request that the Tribe consider the adoption of the enclosed draft General Council resolution (Resolution #GC-98-03). The purpose of this resolution is to authorize the Bureau to charge expenses related to the organization of the Tribe to the Tribe's FY 1998 Tribal Priority Allocation funding. One example of a cost supporting the organization process is the purchase of death certificates for the three deceased heirs. The death certificates are necessary for the initiation of the probate process. Another example of such costs is the hiring of a new Bureau employee, or the temporary assignment of an existing Bureau employee, to work directly with the Tribe in the organization process. Such work may focus on the enrollment process, development of administrative management systems, or on issues related to governance.

Other Issues

Probates: We discussed the status of the land, and the need for additional probates to be completed to determine the status of the estates of deceased heirs. We agreed to obtain copies of the death certificates of the deceased heirs. A request for death certificates was prepared, and we expect the processing of the request by the State Office of Vital Records within the next month. Once received, we will then proceed with preparing the probates.

The fact that there are probate actions remaining to be taken directly impacts your ability to enter into a homesite lease. This is relevant to the question you asked regarding Silvia's eligibility for assistance under the Housing Improvement Program (HIP). An applicant under the HIP must demonstrate ownership or control over land, either through an assignment or a homesite lease. In this case, as the land is considered as individually-owned trust land, you and the other heirs would have to enter into a homesite lease with Ms. Burley. Other eligibility criteria exists for the HIP that are beyond the purview of this letter. We have requested that the HIP send an application to Ms. Burley for her review.

Septic Tank: With regard to the septic tank issue you brought to our attention, we researched our files and found that the house you are currently occupying was constructed under the HIP in 1967. The issue is addressed in a memorandum from the Agency Realty Officer to the Area Realty Officer, dated August 12, 1971, which states, "The 20' x 24' house was constructed in 1967 at a cost of $8,500.00 and the septic tank, installed by Phoenix Health Service, would cost about $1,500.00." We contacted the Indian Health Service, California Area Office, here in Sacramento, and inquired whether they will be able to provide maintenance services to you. We obtained their commitment to perform the work within the next couple of months. We will work with you to ensure that the work is completed in an appropriate manner.

Access to Rancheria: We discussed the notion that the driveway leading up to the Sheep Ranch Rancheria was not within the Rancheria. We agreed to look into the ownership of the driveway. Please find enclosed an Assessor's Parcel Map of a portion of the Sheep Ranch Townsite. This map shows a number of "paper" roads that do not exist today. We are currently researching the ownership of the paper roads to determine what rights the Tribe may have to assert a use right to the driveway.

Next Meeting: We agreed that another meeting was necessary to discuss the draft resolutions and additional details of the organization process. We propose that we meet on Friday, October 2, 1998, at 11:00 a.m., to be held at your residence in Sheep Ranch, California.

I thank you for your concern and positive participation in the organization process. I am certain that if we continue to work together, the organization process will be completed without undue delay. Toward this end, I extend the assistance of my staff, upon your written request.

Sincerely,

Dale Risling, Sr.

IN REPLY REFER TO:

FEB - 4 2000

Yakima K. Dixie, Vice-Chairperson
Sheep Ranch Rancheria
P.O. Box 41
Sheep Ranch, California 95250

Dear Mr. Dixie:

This correspondence serves three purposes. First, we respond to concerns raised by you and other persons purporting to be members of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria, during a meeting held at the Central California Agency (Agency) on December 28, 1999. Second, we respond to your delivery during the aforementioned meeting of the "Constitution of the (Sheep Ranch Rancheria) Miwok Indian Tribe of California," purportedly adopted on December 11, 1999. Third, we give you notice of the meeting to be held on Tuesday, February 15, 2000, for the purpose of discussing further these issues among the members of the Tribe.

Allegations of Fraud Raised at our Meeting of December 28, 1999

The concerns raised at our meeting with you and other persons purported to be members of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria (Tribe) center around allegations of fraud or misconduct relative to the change in Tribal leadership during April and May 1999. You provided us with copies of two documents as support for your claims. The first document appears to be a resolution of the General Council, where at a special meeting held on April 20, 1999, the General Council accepted your resignation from the office of Chairperson. The second document contains two letters from you to Silvia Burley wherein you assert that you "cannot and will not (resign) as Chairman" but "do give (Ms. Burley)...the right to act as a delegate to represent the Sheep Ranch Indian Rancheria." During our meeting, you also stated that within two weeks you would submit to the Agency additional documents and statements supporting your claims. However, we did not receive anything from you as of the date of this letter.

At the conclusion of our meeting, we agreed to review our records and provide you with a response regarding your allegations. We also agreed that as a matter of protocol our response would be shared with the person presently recognized by the Agency as the Chairperson of the Tribe, Silvia Burley. We further agreed that our response would be among the subjects of discussion at a future meeting with the Tribe.

Background

Prior to August 1998, the Agency recognized you as the Spokesperson of the Tribe. This recognition was based upon the fact that you are a lineal descendant of the sole distributee (your mother, Mabel Hodge Dixie) identified in the Plan for the Distribution of the Assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria, as approved by the Associate Commissioner of Indian Affairs on October 12, 1966. You are also one of the two remaining heirs identified in the Order of Determination of Heirs issued on November 1, 1971, as reaffirmed by subsequent Order issued on April 14, 1993. At that time, the whereabouts of the other remaining heir (your brother Melvin Dixie) were unknown.

On August 5, 1998, as Spokesperson of the Tribe, you accepted as enrolled members of the Tribe four persons: (1) Silvia Burley, (2) her daughter Rashed Reznor, (3) her daughter Anjelica Paulk, and (4) her granddaughter Tristian Wallace. The documents evidencing your action do not state any restrictions upon the rights of these persons as members of the Tribe. As such, we view these persons as members of the Tribe, enjoying all benefits, privileges, rights, and responsibilities of Tribal membership. This includes the right to participate in the initial organization of the Tribe, provided that those persons are eighteen years or older.

On September 8, 1998, and again on October 16, 1998, Agency staff met with you, Ms. Burley, Ms. Reznor, and other interested parties (including representatives from California Indian Legal Services) to discuss the group's interest in formally organizing the Tribe. The group expressed an interest in proceeding and we agreed to provide technical assistance to the group.

Generally, the initial issue to be addressed in the process of organizing an "unterminated" Tribe is that of specifying those persons entitled to participate. The position of the Agency on this subject is that, at a minimum, those persons entitled to organize the Tribe are those persons now living and listed on either (1) the Distribution Plan or (2) the Order of Determination of Heirs, and the lineal descendants of those persons. As stated above, your August 5, 1998, enrollment action is viewed by the Agency as extending to Ms. Burley and Ms. Reznor the right of participation. Thus, as of that date, you, Ms. Burley, and Ms. Reznor formed the group of persons entitled to participate in the organization of the Tribe:

We also recommended that the group consider eliciting the participation of descendants of those persons listed on the Census of Sheep Ranch-Indians, as attached to the letter by the Special Indian Agent, dated August 13, 1915, recommending the purchase of land that would later become the Sheep Ranch Rancheria. At this time, we do not know whether the group has formally considered this recommendation.

Another recommendation we made involved the initial form of government to be adopted by the group, and was based upon the General Council concept. To this end, we prepared a draft resolution that would establish a General Council as the governing body of the Tribe and empowered that body to act with regard to various aspects of the organization process. On November 5, 1998, the majority of the adult members of the Tribe, adopted Resolution #GC-98-01, thus establishing a General Council to serve as the governing body of the Tribe.

Resolution #GC-98-01 provided for the appointment of a Chairperson and the election of a Secretary/Treasurer. We do not have any record of the appointment of a Chairperson or the election of a Secretary/Treasurer. We do have two letters, both from Ms. Burley, the first dated April 2, 1999, wherein she asserts that she is the elected Secretary/Treasurer of the Tribe, and the second dated April 13, 1999, which states Ms. Burley's title as Secretary/Treasurer. The second letter also indicates a courtesy copy was sent to Yakima Dixie, Chairman.

The first of the two documents you provided us during our meeting on December 28, 1999, indicate that, at a special meeting held on April 20, 1999, the General Council accepted your resignation from the office of Chairperson. The second document contains two letters from you to Ms. Burley, dated April 21, 1999, wherein you assert that you "cannot and will not (resign) as Chalman" but "do give you...the right to act as a delegate to represent the Sheep Ranch Indian Rancheria." Prior to our meeting, we did not have copies of these documents in our records.

The next correspondence regarding the Tribe contained in our records is dated May 14, 1999, from Mary T. Wynne, Attorney at Law, which purported to transmit to the Agency several documents, including a constitution, an attorney contract, and a certification of election. However, a copy of the certification of election was not received by the Agency until May 27, 1999. The certificate states that an election occurred on May 8, 1999, pursuant to Article XIV of the constitution ratified the same day. As a result of the election, Ms. Burley became Chairperson, you became Vice-Chairperson, and Ms. Reznor became Secretary/Treasurer. Also contained in our records is a copy of the May 8, 1999, General Council Meeting Notice upon which your signature appears.

As for the attorney contract that was enclosed with the May 14, 1999, correspondence, the Agency by letter addressed to you and dated May 27, 1999, returned the proposed contract to the Tribe without action for a number of reasons, including the fact that the "Agency has not received any documentation from the tribe which would clarify how, when and where the leadership of the tribe changed from having Mr. Yakima Dixie be the Chairperson to Ms. Silvia Burley assuming that elected position." The Agency did not receive a written response from the Tribe addressing the lack of documentation. As stated above, the Agency did receive on May 27, 1999, copies of the Certificate of Election and the May 8, 1999, General Council Meeting Notice.

Analysis

You alleged that the events during April and May 1999 leading to the change in Tribal leadership resulted from fraud and your lack of awareness of what was happening during that period of time. You also requested that the Agency take action to clear up this matter. We cannot at this time fulfill your request that the Agency act to clear up this matter.

The general position of the Agency is that the appointment of Tribal leadership and the conduct of Tribal elections are internal matters. Tribal members reasonably believing such actions to be invalid have the right to appeal as a matter of due process. Appeals are to be made within a reasonable time after the election and in an appropriate manner as defined by Tribal law. Appeals are to be made directly to and resolved within the appropriate Tribal forum designated and empowered under Tribal law to process and decide such appeals.

When the appointment of Tribal leadership or the conduct of a Tribal election is the subject of an appeal, the Agency as a matter of policy continues to recognize the Tribal government as constituted prior to the appointment or election. Such recognition continues until either (1) the Agency is assured that the appeal is resolved, or (2) the Agency determines that resolution of the appeal within a reasonable time appears unlikely. In the first instance, the Tribe's assurance of resolution of the appeal is the basis for Agency acknowledgement of the newly appointed or elected officials of the Tribal government.

However, in the second instance, often the appointment of Tribal leadership or the conduct of a Tribal election becomes the center of a larger dispute, such that appeals are unlikely to be handled in a manner affording due process. The factions then will approach the Agency and request our recognition of each faction's actions. As a matter of policy, the Agency informs the Tribal government as constituted prior to the appointment or election that a continuing dispute regarding the composition of the governing body of the Tribe raises concerns that a duly constituted government is lacking. The Agency then advises the Tribe to resolve the dispute internally within a reasonable period of time, and that failure to do so may result in sanctions taken against the Tribe, up to and including the suspension of the government-to-government relationship between the Tribe and the United States. Such suspensions are rare, but they do occur.

With respect to your allegations regarding the transition in leadership of the Tribe, we view such allegations as the basis of an appeal regarding the appointment of Tribal leadership and the conduct of the May 8, 1999, Tribal election. Such an appeal should have been pursued within a reasonable time after the election was conducted, and made to the appropriate body empowered to decide such an appeal. Whether your letter of April 21, 1999, to Silvia Burley, wherein you expressed your inability to resign from the office of Chairperson, was such an appeal is a question to be decided by the Tribe. As regards the May 8, 1999, Tribal election, you provided no evidence to us that you pursued or attempted to pursue those remedies available to you within the Tribe. If you possess such evidence, you should present it to the appropriate body empowered to process and decide an appeal. Thus, consistent with Agency policy, we cannot at this time fulfill your request that the Agency act to clear up this matter as this issue is an internal matter to be resolved by the Tribe.

Constitution of December 11, 1999

During our meeting on December 26, 1999, you provided us with a document entitled, "Constitution of Sheep (Ranch (Rancheria) Miwok Indian Tribe of California" (Constitution). The last page of the Constitution indicates that it was adopted on December 11, 1999.

Please find enclosed the Constitution. We return it to you, without action, as a formal request for review did not accompany the Constitution. Further, the body that acted on December 11, 1999, upon the document does not appear to be the proper body to so act.

Proposed Meeting of February 15, 2000

During our meeting on December 26, 1999, you requested that another meeting be held after we responded to your concerns. For this reason, and in light of the present dispute within the Tribe, we scheduled the requested meeting for Tuesday, February 15, 2000, at 11:30 a.m., to be held in the Conference Room of the Central California Agency. The purpose of this meeting will be to discuss the issues raised in light of the discussion above, as well as steps the Tribe may take to resolve this matter internally.

You also requested that only members of the General Council and one non-attorney representative for each side participate in this meeting. We understand that Rebecca Cuthill and your brother, Melvin Dixie, will be accompanying you to this meeting. Ms. Cuthill was present at our meeting on December 28, 1999. We briefly met with Melvin Dixie at the Agency on January 13, 2000, and informed him of the efforts made to formally organize the Tribe. At that time, he expressed an interest in being involved in that process. Since Melvin Dixie is the only remaining heir, other than you, identified in the Order of Determination of Heirs, he is entitled to participate in the organization of the Tribe.

A copy of this letter is being sent under separate cover letter to Ms. Burley so as to apprise her of your concerns and our position. The separate cover letter will provide Ms. Burley with notice of the February 15, 2000, meeting, as described in this letter.

IN REPLY REFER TO:

MAR -7 2000

Silvia Burley, Chairperson
Sheep Ranch Rancheria
1055 Winter Court
Tracy, California 95376

Dear Ms. Burley:

The purpose of this correspondence is to provide you with a summary of the discussion that occurred during a meeting on February 15, 2000, held at the Central California Agency (Agency), with Yakima Dixie, Vice-Chairperson of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria (Tribe), his brother Melvin Dixie, and other interested parties. The summary responds to the concerns you expressed in your letter dated February 15, 2000. We also respond to your requests expressed in your letter dated February 24, 2000.

The Meeting of February 15, 2000

At the request of Yakima Dixie, Vice-Chairperson, which he made during a meeting at the Agency with him and other interested parties on December 28, 1999, we scheduled a meeting to be held at the Agency on February 15, 2000. As explained in our February 4, 2000, letters to you and to Mr. Dixie, the purpose of that meeting was to discuss the issues raised in those letters, as well as steps the Tribe may take to resolve this matter internally. Mr. Dixie also requested that only members of the General Council and one non-attorney representative for each side participate in that meeting. We understood Mr. Dixie's request as a desire to ensure a free exchange of ideas among those persons comprising the body possessing authority to decide the issues.

By letters dated February 9, 2000, you informed the Agency that the Tribe concluded that the February 15, 2000, meeting was inconsistent with Tribal management of its own affairs. On that basis, you and Rashel Reznor declined to participate in that meeting.

On February 15, 2000, we informed Yakima Dixie, his brother Melvin Dixie, and other interested parties, of the decision of Rashel Reznor and you not to participate in the scheduled meeting. However, Yakima Dixie requested a brief meeting with us to address general questions arising from our February 4, 2000, letter to him. We agreed to meet for that limited purpose. The following is a summary of the ensuing discussion.

At the outset of the meeting, we reiterated to the parties present the Agency's position that the issues raised in our letter of February 4, 2000, are internal matters. As such, the parties present needed to seek redress within the appropriate Tribal forum empowered to process and decide such issues. We also reiterated our view, notwithstanding a Tribal decision to the contrary, that the appropriate Tribal forum is the General Council. At present, we view, again notwithstanding a Tribal decision to the contrary, the General Council as comprised of Yakima Dixie, Rashel Reznor, and you. The rights of Melvin Dixie, Rocky McKay, and other interested parties, to participate in the governance of the Tribe are to be determined by the appropriate Tribal forum, and are further discussed below.

Your Membership Status

The discussion then turned to the assertion by Yakima Dixie that his act of August 5, 1998, to accept Rashel Reznor, Anjelica Paulk, Tristian Wallace, and you, as enrolled members of the Tribe was a limited enrollment. He explained that he intended only to grant to the four of you such membership rights necessary to qualify the four of you for services offered by the Bureau of Indian Affairs to members of federally recognized tribes. Yakima Dixie stated that his intent was consistent with the context in which you originally approached him, seeking a means of obtaining additional assistance after such assistance previously provided to you by the Jackson Rancheria was discontinued. As evidence of his position, Yakima Dixie produced videotape of a meeting held at Yakima Dixie's residence on or about October 16, 1998, at which representatives from the Agency and the California Indian Legal Services were present. We viewed a portion of the videotape documenting a discussion of your potential eligibility as a member of the Tribe to receive scholarship, housing, and other assistance. Afterward, we expressed our view that it was unlikely that the Tribe would find such a limitation on your enrollment expressed in the videotape. Further, we pointed out the fact, as stated in our letter of February 4, 2000, that the documents signed by Yakima Dixie to effect your enrollment expressed no such limitation. Moreover, we explained that Yakima Dixie's subsequent actions tended to establish the contrary view that you possess full rights of membership, since Mr. Dixie only objected to your participation in the deliberations of the decision-making body of the Tribe many months after the transition in leadership.

Allegations of Fraud or Misconduct

The discussion then turned to the allegations of fraud or misconduct relative to the change in Tribal leadership during April and May 1999. Yakima Dixie asked what action we were going to take. We explained that there was no action for the Agency to take, consistent with our position as expressed in our letter of February 4, 2000, that the allegations are issues properly decided within the appropriate Tribal forum. Thus, we explained, in light of federal law and policy, there was no basis for Agency involvement, since this situation is a dispute of an internal nature.

Your Decision Not to Participate in the Meeting

Yakima Dixie then asked why you and Rashel Reznor did not attend the meeting, and whether we were going to do something about your lack of participation. We explained that attendance at the meeting was not mandatory. Our reasons for fulfilling Mr. Dixie's request were threefold. First, we believed fulfilling the request was appropriate to provide a safe neutral location for the meeting. Second, by hosting a meeting at the Agency, we would assure our availability to answer general questions regarding steps the Tribe may take to resolve this matter internally. Third, we believed the meeting would assure a free exchange of ideas among the persons comprising the body possessing authority to decide the issues. However, we believed that requiring the mandatory participation of the parties would likely be viewed as an intrusion into an internal matter of the Tribe.

We also discussed your letter to Yakima Dixie, dated February 9, 2000, wherein you informed Mr. Dixie of the Tribe's decision to extend to him a thirty-day period within which to raise his concerns and present his issues to the Tribe. We reiterated to Mr. Dixie of our position that, where issues are internal in nature, their resolution must be sought within the appropriate Tribal forum. In light of your letter and consistent with our position, we suggested that Mr. Dixie send to the Tribe a letter stating his claims and requesting a hearing. Moreover, we recommended Mr. Dixie provide the Tribe with notice of that address where he expected delivery of notices of Tribal meetings and other correspondence to occur. We also suggested that Mr. Dixie inform the Tribe of any circumstances which may limit his ability to participate in Tribal affairs, such as a lack of access to transportation or an inability to pay out-of-pocket costs of transportation. If Mr. Dixie believes such circumstances exist, he should request financial assistance from the Tribe or suggest alternatives he believes may reduce or eliminate potential barriers to his participation in Tribal affairs. We also suggested that Mr. Dixie provide the Agency with a courtesy copy of such a notice. To date, no such courtesy copy has been received at the Agency.

Ability of Rocky McKay to Participate

During the meeting, Rocky McKay presented us with an original affidavit from his mother, Wanda Lewis, wherein she states that Yakima Dixie is the true father of Mr. McKay. We briefly reviewed the document. We then expressed our view that Mr. McKay may be entitled to participate in the organization of the Tribe, if he can establish that he is a lineal descendant of Yakima Dixie, one of the heirs now living listed in the Order of Determination of Heirs issued on November 1, 1971, as reaffirmed by subsequent Order issued on April 14, 1993. Further, we informed Mr. McKay that the subject of what evidence is acceptable for establishing his lineal descendancy is an internal matter to be determined by the Tribe. Thus, Mr. McKay's ability to participate in the organization of the Tribe also depends upon whether he can provide that type of evidence determined by the Tribe to be acceptable for purposes of establishing lineal descendancy.

We then recommended that Rocky McKay provide to the Tribe a written request to be enrolled as a member of the Tribe. We also recommended that Mr. McKay enclose with his request any documents and other evidence he believed to be acceptable for establishing his lineal descendancy.

By way of a letter dated February 25, 2000, we informed Rocky McKay that the Tribe would likely view the affidavit from Wanda Lewis as insufficient evidence of Yakima Dixie's paternity. In general, where the Bureau of Indian Affairs is performing enrollment functions, a valid affidavit from the purported father is acceptable evidence of paternity. However, as stated previously, the subject of what evidence is acceptable for establishing paternity is an internal matter to be determined by the Tribe. Thus, we recommended that Mr. McKay obtain from Yakima Dixie a notarized affidavit asserting his paternity. We also recommended that Mr. McKay seek an amendment to his birth certificate, since Yakima Dixie is not named therein as the father. We further recommended that Mr. McKay request financial and technical assistance from the Tribe in obtaining an affidavit or any other evidence the Tribe may determine to be necessary to establish his eligibility for enrollment and membership in the Tribe.

In our February 25, 2000, letter to Rocky McKay, we expressed the view that the letter accompanying his correspondence dated November 22, 1999, from Yakima Dixie declaring his adoption of Mr. McKay as a member of the Tribe would likely be viewed by the Tribe as ineffective. Copies of these documents were faxed by the Agency to you on December 7, 1999. We also informed Mr. McKay that in general, only the Tribe, acting at a duly noticed, called, and convened meeting at which a quorum is present, is the proper body to consider and effect his enrollment in the Tribe.

Ability of Melvin Dixie to Participate

Also during the February 15, 2000, meeting, we discussed the right of Melvin Dixie to participate in the organization of the Tribe. We advised Melvin Dixie that he is entitled to participate in the organization of the Tribe because he is one of the heirs now living listed in the Order of Determination of Heirs issued on November 1, 1971, as reaffirmed by subsequent Order issued on April 14, 1993. We then recommended Mr. Dixie provide to the Tribe written notice of his present address and telephone number, as the present leadership and administration of the Tribe must have such information in order to deliver proper and timely notice of Tribal meetings. We further advised Mr. Dixie to inform the Tribe of any circumstances which may limit his ability to participate in Tribal affairs, such as a lack of access to transportation or an inability to pay out-of-pocket costs of transportation. If Mr. Dixie believes such circumstances exist, he should request financial assistance from the Tribe or suggest alternatives he believes may reduce or eliminate potential barriers to his participation in Tribal affairs.

In connection with Melvin Dixie's right to participate in the organization of the Tribe, we expressed the view that he would likely be requested to provide to the Tribe proof of his identity. We explained that the subject of what evidence is acceptable for establishing identity is an internal matter to be determined by the Tribe. Therefore, we suggested that Mr. Dixie provide written notice to the Tribe of his assertion of entitlement to participate in the organization of the Tribe, and to enclose documents and other evidence he believed to be acceptable for establishing his identity.

In a subsequent letter dated February 25, 2000, we further recommended that Melvin Dixie request financial and technical assistance from the Tribe in obtaining any other evidence the Tribe might determine to be necessary.

In the aforementioned letter, we also discussed our views related to an affidavit by Melvin Dixie. The affidavit was received at the Agency on February 1, 2000. In the affidavit, among other assertions, Melvin Dixie stated that he is the father of a son. In our letter, we recommended that Melvin Dixie provide to the Tribe a written request that his son be enrolled as a member of the Tribe. We suggested Mr. Dixie enclose with his request a photocopy of the birth certificate or provide other evidence establishing that he is the father of his son. We further suggested that Mr. Dixie obtain, if not already in his possession, a certified copy of the birth certificate naming Mr. Dixie as the father of his son. Moreover, we recommended that Melvin Dixie, should he not be named in the birth certificate, complete an affidavit asserting his paternity of his son, and have the affidavit notarized. We also suggested that Melvin Dixie seek an amendment to the birth certificate if he is not named as the father in the birth certificate. We then recommended that Melvin Dixie request assistance from the Tribe in obtaining a certified birth certificate, an affidavit, or any other evidence the Tribe might determine to be necessary to establish his son's eligibility for enrollment and membership in the Tribe.

Your Letter of February 15, 2000

As for your concern expressed in your letter of February 15, 2000, that the meeting of the same day with Yakima and Melvin Dixie and other interested parties was improper, we assure you that the meeting was completely proper. First and foremost, we agreed to meet, at the request of an officer of the Tribe's governing body, for the limited purpose of addressing general questions arising from our letter of February 4, 2000. Moreover, we reiterated to the parties present our position as expressed in our letter of February 4, 2000, that these issues are internal matters to be considered and acted upon by the appropriate Tribal forum. Thus, we believe that our actions were consistent with our responsibility to provide technical assistance, and with established policies of non-interference, deference to Tribal decision-making, and respect for Tribal self-determination and sovereignty.

Your Letter of February 24, 2000

In your letter of February 24, 2000, you requested copies of the "sworn affidavits" submitted to the Agency by Yakima Dixie "alleging fraud on the part of the Tribal Council and that Rocky McKay is his son." Unfortunately, we cannot fulfill your request, as no such documents by Mr. Dixie are maintained within the records of the Agency.

As to your statement that the Agency "refused" to provide the Tribe with information as to the address and location of Melvin Dixie, we have no record of a Tribal request for such information. Further, such information is contained in a system of records covered by the Privacy Act (5 USC § 552a). As such, we are unable to release this information to you without the express consent of Melvin Dixie. As stated above, we also suggested in our letter of February 25, 2000, that Mr. Dixie provide this information to the Tribe.

Your Letter Postmarked February 2, 2000

As for your undated letter, postmarked February 2, 2000, requesting that we forward a letter to Yakima Dixie regarding the Regular Tribal Meeting scheduled for February 7, 2000, we were unable to fulfill your request. The letter was received at the Agency on Thursday afternoon, February 3, 2000. Even if the Agency, within a twenty-four hour period, had processed and forwarded the letter via overnight mail, the meeting day of Monday, February 7, 2000, would likely be the earliest Yakima Dixie would have received the letter. Thus, we return to you the enclosed sealed envelope addressed to Yakima Dixie.

Conclusion

The issues surrounding the present leadership and membership of the Tribe are internal matters to be resolved within the appropriate Tribal forum. As a matter of policy, the Agency will not interfere in the internal matters of the Tribe. However, if in time a dispute regarding the composition of the governing body of the Tribe continues without resolution, the government-to-government relationship between the Tribe and the United States may be compromised. In such situations, the Agency will advise the Tribe to resolve the dispute internally within a reasonable period of time. The Agency will also inform the Tribe that its failure to do so may result in sanctions against the Tribe, up to and including the suspension of the government-to-government.

The Tribe, in the letter dated February 9, 2000, granted a thirty-day period of time to Yakima Dixie within which to raise his concerns and present his issues to the Tribe. This fact demonstrates that the Tribe is attempting to resolve this internal matter. We respectfully request that the Tribe inform us in writing of the action taken by the appropriate Tribal forum to resolve the dispute. We further request the Tribe's written response clearly explain what action was taken to resolve the dispute, the legal authority in Tribal law for the action, and the rationale for the action.

As always, Agency staff is available to the extent resources permit to provide the Tribe with technical assistance, upon your written request.

Should you have any questions with regard to this matter, please contact Mr. Raymond Fry, Tribal Operations Officer, at (916) 566-7124.

Sincerely,

Dale Rising, Sr.

Ms. Sylvia Burley, Chairperson
California Valley Miwok Tribe
10601 Escondido Pl.
Stockton, California 95121

Dear Ms. Burley:

This letter acknowledges our February 11, 2004, receipt of a document represented to be the tribal constitution for the California Valley Miwok Tribe. It is our understanding that the Tribe has shared this tribal constitution with the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) in an attempt to demonstrate that it is an "organized" tribe. Regretfully, we must disagree that such a demonstration is made.

Although the Tribe has not requested any assistance or comments from this office in response to your document, we provide the following observations for your consideration. As you know, the BIA's Central California Agency (CCA) has a responsibility to develop and maintain a government-to-government relationship with each of the 54 federally recognized tribes situated within CCA's jurisdiction. This relationship, includes among other things, the responsibility of working with the person or persons from each tribe who either are rightfully elected to a position of authority within the tribe or who otherwise occupy a position of authority within an unorganized tribe. To that end, the BIA has recognized you, as a person of authority within the California Valley Miwok Tribe. However, the BIA does not yet view your tribe to be an "organized" Indian Tribe and this view is borne out not only by the document that you have presented as the tribe's constitution but additionally, by our relations over the last several decades with members of the tribal community in and around Sheep Ranch Rancheria. (Let me emphasize that being an organized vis-à-vis unorganized tribe ordinarily will not impact either your tribe's day-to-day operations but could impact your tribe's continued eligibility for certain grants and services from the United States).

Where a tribe that has not previously organized seeks to do so, BIA also has a responsibility to determine that the organizational efforts reflect the involvement of the whole tribal community. We have not seen evidence that such general involvement was attempted or has occurred with the purported organization of your tribe. For example, we have not been made aware of any efforts to reach out to the Indian communities in and around the Sheep Ranch Rancheria, or to persons who have maintained any cultural contact with Sheep Ranch. To our knowledge, the only persons of Indian descent involved in the tribe's organization efforts, were you and your two daughters. We are unaware of any efforts to involve Yakima Dixie or Mr. Dixie's brother Melvin Dixie or any offspring of Merle Butler, Tillie Jeff or Lenny Jeff, all persons who are known to have resided at Sheep Ranch Rancheria at various times in the past 75 years and persons who have inherited an interest in the Rancheria. We are also not aware of any efforts to involve Indians (such as Lena Shelton) and their descendants who once lived adjacent to Sheep Ranch Rancheria or to investigate the possibility of involving a neighboring group. We are aware that the Indians of Sheep Ranch Rancheria were in fact, part of a larger group of Indians residing less than 20 miles away at West Point. Indeed, at your February 23, 2004 deposition, you yourself testified you were at one time of the West Point Indian Community; we understand as well, that you had siblings residing there for many years. The BIA remains available, upon your request, to assist you in identifying the members of the local Indian community, to assist in disseminating both individual and public notices, facilitating meetings, and otherwise providing logistical support.

It is only after the greater tribal community is initially identified that governing documents should be drafted and the Tribe's base and membership criteria identified. The participation of the greater tribal community is essential to this effort. We are very concerned about the designated "base roll" for the tribe as identified in the submitted tribal constitution; this "base roll" contains only the names of five living members all but one whom were born between 1960 and 1996, and therefore would imply that there was never any tribal community in and around Sheep Ranch Rancheria until you met with Yakima Dixie, asking for his assistance to admit you as a member. The base roll, thus, suggests that this tribe did not exist until the 1990's, with the exception of Yakima Dixie. However, BIA's records indicate with the exception not withstanding, otherwise.

Base membership rolls are used to establish a tribe's cohesiveness and community at a point in time in history. They would normally contain the names of individuals listed on historical documents which confirm Native American tribal relationships in a specific geographical region. Since tribes and bands themselves did not usually possess such historical documents, therefore, tribal base rolls have included persons listed on old census rolls, Indian Agency rolls, voters rolls, etc. Our experience with your sister Miwok tribes (e.g., Shingle Springs Rancheria, Tuolumne Rancheria, Ione Band, etcetera) leads us to believe that Miwok tradition favors base rolls identifying persons found in Miwok tribes stretching from Amador County in the North to Calaveras and Mariposa Counties in the South. The Base and Enrollment criteria for these tribes vary; for example, Amador County tribes use the 1915 Miwok Indian Census of Amador County, El Dorado County tribes utilize the 1916 Indian Census Roll, tribe(s) in Tuolumne County utilize a 1934 IRA voters' list. The base roll typically constitutes the cornerstone of tribal membership and based upon our experience, has been the basic starting point and foundation for each of the Miwok tribes in our jurisdiction, i.e., the Lone Band of Miwok Indians, Shingle Springs Rancheria and Tuolumne Rancheria.

We must continue to emphasize the importance of the participation of a greater tribal community in determining membership criteria. We reiterate our continued availability and willingness to assist you in this process and that via PL 93-638 contracts intended to facilitate the organization or reorganization of the tribal community, we have already extended assistance. We urge you to continue the work that you have begun towards formal organization of the California Valley Miwok Tribe.

If we can assist your efforts in any way, please contact Raymond Fry, Manager, Tribal Services, at (916) 930-3794.

Should you wish to appeal any portion of this letter, you are advised that you may do so by complying with the following:

This decision may be appealed to the Regional Director, Pacific Regional Office, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, California 95825. In accordance with the regulations in 25 CFR Part 2 (copy enclosed). Your notice of appeal must be filed in this office within 30 days of the date you receive this decision. The date of filing or notice is the date it is post marked or the date it is personally delivered to this office. Your notice of appeal must include your name, address and telephone number. It should clearly identify the decision to be appealed. If possible attach a copy of the decision. The notice of and the envelope which it is mailed, should be clearly labeled "NOTICE OF APPEAL." The notice of appeal must list the names and addresses of the interested parties known to you and certify that you have sent them copies of the notice.

You must also send a copy of your notice to the Regional Director, at the address given above.

If you are not represented by an attorney, you may request assistance from this office in the preparation of your appeal.

Mr. Yakima K. Dixie
Sheep Ranch Rancheria of MiWok Indians of California
11178 Sheep Ranch Rd.
P.O. Box 41
Sheep Ranch, California 95250

Dear Mr. Dixie:

I am writing in response to your appeal filed with the office of the Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs on October 30, 2003. In deciding this appeal, I am exercising authority delegated to me from the Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs pursuant to 209 DM 8.3 and 110 DM 8.2. In that appeal, you challenged the Bureau of Indian Affairs' ("BIA") recognition of Sylvia Burley as tribal Chairman and sought to "nullify" her admission, and the admission of her daughter and granddaughters into your Tribe. Although your appeal raises many difficult issues, I must dismiss it on procedural grounds.

Your appeal of the BIA's recognition of Ms. Burley as tribal Chairman has been rendered moot by the BIA's decision of March 26, 2004, a copy of which is enclosed, rejecting the Tribe's proposed constitution. In that letter, the BIA made clear that the Federal government did not recognize Ms. Burley as the tribal Chairman. Rather, the BIA would recognize her as "a person of authority within California Valley Miwok Tribe." Until such time as the Tribe has organized, the Federal government can recognize no one, including yourself, as the tribal Chairman. I encourage you, either in conjunction with Ms. Burley, other tribal members, or potential tribal members, to continue your efforts to organize the Tribe along the lines outlined in the March 26, 2004, letter so that the Tribe can become organized and enjoy the full benefits of Federal recognition. The first step in organizing the Tribe is identifying putative tribal members. If you need guidance or assistance, Ray Fry, (916) 930-3794, of the Central California Agency of the BIA can advise you how to go about doing this.

In addition, your appeal to my office was procedurally defective because it raised issues that had not been raised at lower levels of the administrative appeal process. In May 2003, you contacted the BIA to request assistance in preparing an appeal of the BIA's recognition of Ms. Burley as tribal Chairman. You specifically stated that you were not filing a formal Notice of Appeal. In June 2003, you filed an "Appeal of inaction of official," pursuant to 25 C.F.R. §2.8, with the Central California Agency Superintendent challenging the BIA's failure to respond to your request for assistance. In August 2003, you filed another "Appeal of inaction of official" with the Acting Regional Director challenging the failure of the Superintendent to respond to your appeal of the BIA's inaction. Your appeal with my office, however, was not an "Appeal of inaction of official." Rather, your "Notice of Appeal" challenged the BIA's recognition of Ms. Burley as tribal Chairman and sought to nullify the Tribe's adoption of her and her family members. Those issues were not raised below. They are not, therefore, properly before me.

In addition, your appeal appears to be untimely. In 1999, you first challenged the BIA's recognition of Ms. Burley as Chairman of the Tribe. In February 2000, the BIA informed you that it defers to tribal resolution of such issues. On July 18, 2001, you filed a lawsuit against Ms. Burley in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California challenging her purported leadership of the Tribe. On January 24, 2002, the district court dismissed your lawsuit, without prejudice and with leave to amend, because you had not exhausted your administrative remedies by appealing the BIA's February 2000 decision. After the court's January 24, 2002, order, you should have pursued your administrative remedies with the BIA. Instead, you waited almost a year and a half, until June 2003, before raising your claim with the Bureau. As a result of your delay in pursuing your administrative appeal after the court's January 24, 2002, order, your appeal before me is time barred.

In light of the BIA's letter of March 26, 2004, that the Tribe is not an organized tribe, however, the BIA does not recognize any tribal government, and therefore, cannot defer to any tribal dispute resolution process at this time. I understand that a Mr. Troy M. Woodward has held himself out as an Administrative Hearing Officer for the Tribe and purported to conduct a hearing to resolve your complaint against Ms. Burley. Please be advised that the BIA does not recognize Mr. Woodward as a tribal official or his hearing process as a legitimate tribal forum. Should other issues arise with respect to tribal leadership or membership in the future, therefore, your appeal would properly lie exclusively with the BIA.

Sincerely,

Michael D. Olsen

Mr. Yakima K. Dixie
c/o Mr. Chadd Everone

Berkeley, California 94704

Dear Ms. Burley and Mr. Dixie:

The Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) remains committed to assist the California Valley Miwok Tribe (Tribe) (formerly Sheep Ranch Rancheria of the Me-Wuk Indians of California) in its efforts to reorganize a formal governmental structure that is representative of all Miwok Indians who can establish a basis for their interest in the Tribe and is acceptable to the clear majority of those Indians. We are writing you because of your claim of leadership of the Tribe.

The Central California Agency (Agency) has been meeting with both of you and your representatives for some time to discuss issues and to offer assistance in your organizational efforts for the Tribe. It is evident; however, that the ongoing leadership dispute is at an impasse and the likelihood of this impasse changing soon seems to be remote. Therefore, we renew our offer to assist the Tribe in the organizational process. Our intention is not to interfere with the Tribe's right to govern itself. Rather, we make this offer consistent with the well-established principle that the BIA has a responsibility to determine that it is dealing with a government that is representative of the Tribe as a whole. The authority and responsibility to take this action becomes evident once there is clear evidence that the dispute between competing leadership factions, such as yours, threatens to impair the government-to-government relationship between the Tribe and the United States.

The Agency, therefore, will publish a notice of a general council meeting of the Tribe to be sponsored by the BIA in the newspapers within the Miwok region. This will initiate the reorganization process. The notice shall invite the members of the Tribe and potential members to the meeting where the members will discuss the issues and needs confronting the Tribe. We have used this sort of general council meeting approach in other instances to help tribes reorganize when for various reasons the tribes lacked an organized tribal government that represented the entire membership.

It appears that you each have determined your membership criteria, and membership, and developed constitutions or governing documents. We understand, however, you do not agree on certain issues that are fundamental to the process of building an organized government. We propose to discuss the following issues that are preventing you from moving forward as a unified tribe:

- form of government;
- organization under a federal statute (should the tribe decide to adopt a constitution);
- should the tribe adopt a constitution, what constitution will be used: the Dixie or Burley constitution, combination of both, or another;
- determining the census where membership is first listed, i.e., 1916 Sheep Ranch Rancheria census or other document;
- determining leadership of the tribe, i.e., holding a transitional election or agreeing to some type of power sharing.

The general council first needs to determine the type of government your tribe will adopt. Tribes do not always adopt constitutions; some govern according to the tribe's tradition or have some sort of power sharing in an open participatory type of government. Next, the general council needs to agree to the census or other documents that establishes the original members of the Rancheria. That census should be the starting point from which the tribe develops membership criteria. The immediate goal is determining membership of the tribe. Once membership is established and the general council determines the form of government, then the leadership issues can be resolved.

The Agency will coordinate the meeting by setting the date, time, location and other arrangements, but we would appreciate your suggestions, date, time, location, and possible agenda items. The BIA offers the assistance of an independent observer/mediator to facilitate the meeting or meetings. Please respond to the Agency concerning your willingness to participate in a meeting to discuss the issues in depth and begin the resolution process.

We very much desire that you both participate. We intend to conduct a fair and open process in which supporters of each of you can participate and be heard. We will proceed with this process, however, even if one or both of you declines to participate.

Please contact Carol Rogers-Davis, Acting Tribal Operations Officer, Central California Agency, at (916) 930-3764, to work with her on setting up the meeting.

Sincerely,

Troy Burdick

Description

PUBLIC NOTICE The Bureau of Indian Affairs, Central California Agency (Agency) plans to assist the California Valley Miwok Tribe, aka, Sheep Ranch Rancheria (Tribe) in its efforts to organize a formal governmental structure that is acceptable to all members. The first step in the organizational process is to identify putative members of the Tribe who may be eligible to participate in all phases of the organizational process of the Tribe. Therefore, if you believe you are a lineal descendant of a person(s) listed below, you will need to complete Form OMB#1076-0153, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Request for Certificate of Degree of Indian or Alaska Native Blood, and provide a certified copy of a birth certificate, death certificate, or other official documentation as required to establish your relationship to a person(s) listed below or other documents acceptable to the Secretary of the Interior (Secretary), and submit them to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Central California Agency, 650 Capitol Mall, 8-500, Sacramento, California 95814, postmarked on or before May 25, 2007. You may contact Carol Rogers-Davis, Acting Tribal Operations Officer, at (916) 930-3764, or Tia Sam, Tribal Operations Specialist, at (916) 930-3765, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Central California Agency, for the necessary information and to obtain the forms that will assist the Bureau Team in determining your eligibility.

1. August 13, 1915 - Census of Indians at or near Sheepranch, Calaveras County, California, which listed the following: 1. Peter Hodge 2. Annie Hodge 3. 2. June 6, 1935, Approved List of Voters for Indian Reorganization Act of Sheep Ranch Rancheria, Calaveras County, California, which listed the following: 1. Jeff Davis 3. August 11, 1964, Approved Plan for Distribution of the Assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria, in accordance with provisions of Public Law 85-671, approved August 18, 1958, and amended by Public Law 88-419, which listed the following: 1. Mabel Hodge Dixie

All individuals who have been determined to be eligible to participate in the organization of the Tribe will be notified by letter from the Agency. All individuals not determined eligible will be noticed of their right to appeal to the BIA, Pacific Regional Director within 30 days of receipt of decision. Upon rendering final decisions regarding appeals filed, the Agency will notify all individuals determined to be eligible of the organizational meeting which will include an agenda of the next actions to be taken by the group. 4/11, 4/18/07

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS'
MOTION FOR SANCTIONS

This matter is before the Court on Defendant Silvia
Burley's motion for sanctions against Plaintiffs' counsel

1 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b).¹ Doc. # 11.
2 Plaintiffs did not file an opposition to this motion.

3 On August 12, 2009 the Court held a hearing in this action
4 regarding Plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction and 5 Defendants' motions to dismiss. The Court denied Plaintiffs'
6 motion for a preliminary injunction and granted Defendants'
7 motions to dismiss for all the reasons stated at the hearing and 8 in the Court's August 31, 2009 written Order. Doc. # 23.

10 Having considered the briefing on the instant motion, and 11 all pleadings and records filed in this action, the Court finds
12 that a reasonable pre-filing inquiry into the merits of this 13 action would have clearly revealed that (1) Plaintiffs lacked 14 the necessary Article III standing to bring this suit; (2) the 15 Court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the action; and 16 (3) Plaintiffs initiated the action prior to exhausting their 17 administrative remedies. As such, the Court concludes that 18 Plaintiffs' attorney did not make a reasonable investigation
19 into the merits of the case prior to filing the action with this 20 Court. As a result, Plaintiffs filed a frivolous lawsuit that
21 resulted in a waste of judicial resources and unnecessary costs

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

DEC 22 2010

Ms. Sylvia Burley
California Valley Miwok Tribe
10601 Escondido Place
Stockton, California 95212

Dear Ms. Burley:

This letter is to inform you of the Department of the Interior's response to the decision of the Interior Board of Indian Appeals (IBIA) in California Valley Miwok Tribe v. Pacific Regional Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 51 IBIA 103 (January 28, 2010) (Decision).

The Decision stemmed from Sylvia Burley's appeal of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Pacific Regional Director's April 2, 2007 decision to affirm the Central California Agency Superintendent in his efforts to "assist" the Tribe in organizing a tribal government. In the Decision, the IBIA dismissed each of Ms. Burley's three complaints for lack of jurisdiction.¹ The IBIA did, however, refer Ms. Burley's second claim to my office, because it was in the nature of a tribal enrollment dispute. Decision, 51 IBIA at 122.

This letter is intended to address the limited issues raised by Ms. Burley's second complaint, as referred to my office by the IBIA: the BIA's involvement in the Tribe's affairs related to government and membership.

Background

This difficult issue is rooted in the unique history of the California Valley Miwok Tribe. A relatively small number of tribal members had been living on less than 1 acre of land in Calaveras County, California known as the Sheep Ranch Rancheria, since 1916. In 1966, the Department was preparing to terminate the Tribe pursuant to the California Rancheria Termination Act, as part of that dark chapter of Federal Indian policy known as the "Termination Era." As part of this effort, the Department had intended to distribute the assets of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria to Ms. Mabel Dixie, as the only eligible person to receive the assets.

The Department never completed the process of terminating the Tribe, and the Tribe never lost its status as a sovereign federally-recognized tribe.

¹ Ms. Burley's complaints were: 1.) The BIA Pacific Regional Director's April 2, 2007 decision violated the Tribe's FY 2007 contract with the BIA under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, or the Regional Director's decision constituted an unlawful reassumption of the contract; 2.) the Tribe is already organized, and the BIA's offer of assistance constitutes an impermissible intrusion into tribal government and membership matters that are reserved exclusively to the Tribe; and, 3.) the Regional Director erred in stating that the Tribe was never terminated and thus is not a "restored" tribe. Decision, 51 IBIA at 104.

12/23/2010 12:58 FAX

In 1998, Yakima Dixie, a tribal member acting as the leader of the Tribe, adopted Sylvia Burley, Rashel Reznor, Anjelica Paulk, and Tristan Wallace as members of the Tribe. At that time, the Department recognized those five individuals, along with Yakima Dixie's brother Melvin, as members of the Tribe. Decision, 51 IBIA at 108.

On September 24, 1998, the Superintendent of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Central California Agency advised Yakima Dixie, then serving as Tribal Chairman, that Yakima Dixie, Melvin Dixie, Sylvia Burley, Rashel Reznor, Anjelica Paulk, and Tristan Wallace were able to participate in an effort to reorganize under the Indian Reorganization Act. California Valley Miwok Tribe v. United States, 424 F. Supp. 2d. 197, 198 (D.D.C. 2006). In that same letter, the Superintendent also recommended that the Tribe establish a general council form of government for the organization process, and provided the Tribe with a draft version of a resolution to implement such a form of government. On November 5, 1998, by Resolution # GC-98-01, the Tribe established the General Council. Id.

Several months afterwards, in April 1999, Yakima Dixie resigned as Tribal Chairman. On May 8, 1999, the Tribe held a general election, in which Yakima Dixie participated, and elected Sylvia Burley as its new chairperson. The BIA later recognized Sylvia Burley as Chairperson of the California Valley Miwok Tribe. Id.

Shortly thereafter, the Tribe developed a draft constitution, and submitted it to the BIA for Secretarial review and approval in May 1999.² During this effort, it is apparent that a leadership dispute developed between Ms. Burley and Mr. Dixie.

On March 6, 2000, the Tribe ratified its Constitution and later requested that the BIA conduct a review and hold a secretarial election pursuant to the Indian Reorganization Act. Id. at 199. In the interim, on March 7, 2000, the Superintendent issued a letter to Sylvia Burley stating that the BIA "believed the Tribe's General Council to consist of the adult members of the tribe, i.e., Mr. Dixie, Ms. Burley, and Ms. Reznor,"³ and stated that the leadership dispute between Mr. Dixie and Ms. Burley was an internal tribal matter." Id.

In February 2004, Ms. Burley submitted a document to the BIA purporting to serve as the Tribe's constitution. The BIA declined to approve the constitution because it believed that Ms. Burley had not involved the entire tribal community in its development and adoption. Letter from Dale Risling, Sr. to Sylvia Burley (March 26, 2004). The BIA noted that there were other Indians in the local area who may have historical ties to the Tribe. In that same letter, the BIA indicated that it did not view the Tribe as an "organized" Indian Tribe, and that it would only recognize Ms. Burley as a "person of authority" within the Tribe, rather than the Chairperson. Letter from Dale Risling, Sr. to Sylvia Burley (March 26, 2004). The Office of the Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs affirmed this position in a letter stating:

[T]he BIA made clear [in its decision of March 26, 2004] that the Federal government did not recognize Ms. Burley as the tribal Chairman. Rather, the BIA would recognize her as a 'person of ² The Tribe withdrew its original request for Secretarial review of its constitution in July 1999.

³ Pursuant to the Tribe's Resolution # GC-98-01, the General Council shall consist of all adult members of the Tribe.

12/23/2010 12:59 FAX

authority within California Valley Miwok Tribe.' Until such time as the Tribe has organized, the Federal government can recognize no one, including yourself, as the tribal Chairman.

Letter from Acting Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs Michael D. Olsen to Yakima Dixie (February 11, 2005). At that point, the BIA became focused on an effort to organize the Tribe under the Indian Reorganization Act, and to include a number of people who were not officially tribal members in that effort.⁴

In 2005, the BIA suspended a contract with the Tribe, and later asserted that there was no longer a government-to-government relationship between the United States and the Tribe. 424 F. Supp. 2d. at 201.

Sylvia Burley, on behalf of the Tribe, filed a complaint against the United States in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia seeking declaratory relief affirming that it had the authority to organize under its own procedures pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 476(h), and that its proffered constitution was a valid governing document. Id. The United States defended against the claim by arguing that its interpretation of the Indian Reorganization Act was not arbitrary and capricious, and that it had a duty to protect the interests of all tribal members during the organization process – which included those individual Miwok Indians who were eligible for enrollment in the tribe. See Id. at 202. The District Court ruled that the Tribe failed to state a claim for which relief could be granted, which was affirmed by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. Id. at 202; 515 F.3d. 1262.

On November 6, 2006, the Superintendent of the BIA Central California Agency issued letters to Sylvia Burley and Yakima Dixie, stating, “[i]t is evident, however, that the ongoing leadership dispute is at an impasse and the likelihood of this impasse changing soon seems to be remote. Therefore, we renew our offer to assist the Tribe in the organizational process.” Letter from Troy Burdick to Sylvia Burley and Yakima Dixie (November 6, 2006). The Superintendent then stated “[t]he Agency, therefore, will publish notice of a general council meeting of the Tribe to be sponsored by the BIA in the newspapers within the Miwok region. This will initiate the reorganization process.” Id.

Sylvia Burley appealed this decision to the BIA Pacific Regional Director, who affirmed the Superintendent’s decision on April 2, 2007. That same month, the BIA Pacific Regional Office published notice of the reorganizational meeting in a newspaper in the region. Sylvia Burley appealed the Regional Director’s decision to the IBIA, which subsequently dismissed her claims, while referring the second claim to my office.

Discussion

⁴ The BIA, Yakima Dixie, and Sylvia Burley all agreed that there was a number of additional people who were potentially eligible for membership in the Tribe. See, California Valley Miwok Tribe v. United States, 515 F.3d 1267 - 1268 (D.C. Cir. 2008) (noting that the Tribe has admitted it has a potential membership of 250) (emphasis added).

I must decide whether to move forward with the BIA's previous efforts to organize the Tribe's government, or to recognize the Tribe's general council form of government – consisting of the adult members of the tribe – as sufficient to fulfill our nation-to-nation relationship.

The Department of the Interior is reluctant to involve itself in these internal tribal matters. To the extent that Department must touch upon these fundamental internal tribal matters, its actions must be limited to upholding its trust responsibility and effectuating the nation-to-nation relationship.

A. Tribal Citizenship

In this instance, the facts clearly establish that the Tribe is a federally recognized tribe which shares a nation-to-nation relationship with the United States. Moreover, the facts also establish that Mr. Dixie adopted Sylvia Burley, Rashel Reznor, Anjelica Paulk, and Tristian Wallace as members of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria in 1998.

The California Valley Miwok Tribe, like all other federally recognized tribes, is a distinct political community possessing the power to determine its own membership, and may do so according to written law, custom, intertribal agreement, or treaty with the United States. See, Cohen's Handbook of Federal Indian Law, § 4.01[2][b] (2005 Edition); see also, Santa Clara Pueblo v. Martinez, 436 U.S. 49, 54 (1978) ("To abrogate tribal decisions, particularly in the delicate area of membership, for whatever 'good' reasons, is to destroy cultural identity under the guise of saving it") quoting Santa Clara Pueblo v. Martinez, 402 F.Supp. 5, 18-19 (D.N.M. 1975).

I understand the difficult circumstances facing those individual Miwok Indians living in Calaveras County, California and who lack an affiliation with a federally recognized tribe. Affiliation with a tribe lies at the core of Indian identity. This is one reason why the Department is working to improve the process by which tribes can become federally recognized, and have their nation-to-nation relationship with the United States restored.

Nevertheless, the United States cannot compel a sovereign federally recognized tribe to accept individual Indians as tribal citizens to participate in a reorganization effort against the Tribe's will. See Santa Clara Pueblo, supra. It is possible that there are other individual Indians in the area surrounding Sheep Ranch who are eligible to become members of the Tribe. Mr. Dixie and Ms. Burley, along with the BIA, have previously indicated such. See 515 F.3d at 1267-68 (D.C. Cir. 2008).

There is a significant difference, however, between eligibility for tribal citizenship and actual tribal citizenship. Only those individuals who are actually admitted as citizens of the Tribe are entitled to participate in its government. The proper recourse for those individuals eligible for tribal citizenship, but who are not yet enrolled, is to work through the Tribe's internal process for gaining citizenship.

It is indisputable that Mr. Dixie adopted Sylvia Burley, Rashel Reznor, Anjelica Paulk, and Tristian Wallace as citizens of the Tribe. Moreover, it is indisputable that the BIA previously accepted the Tribe's decision to enroll these individuals as tribal citizens, as evidenced by its letter of September 24, 1998.

12/23/2010 13:00 FAX

Whatever good reasons the BIA may have had for requiring the Tribe to admit new citizens to participate in its government are not sufficient to overcome the longstanding principles of reserving questions of enrollment to the Tribe.

B. Tribal Government

As with matters of enrollment, each tribe is vested with the authority to determine its own form of government. This authority is a quintessential attribute of tribal sovereignty. Cohen's Handbook of Federal Indian Law, § 4.01[2][a] (2005 Edition).

The Department recommended in a letter to the Tribe, that it "operate as a General Council," which would serve as its governing body. Letter from BIA Central California Superintendent Dale Risling to Yakima K. Dixie, Spokesperson for the Sheep Ranch Rancheria (September 24, 1998). In its letter to the Tribe, the Department advised the Tribe that, "[t]he General Council would then be able to proceed with the conduct of business, in a manner consistent with the authorizing resolution." Id. The Department previously considered this form sufficient to fulfill the government-to-government relationship. See award of P.L. 93-638 Contract CTJ51T62801 (February 8, 2000).

The determination of whether to adopt a new constitution, and whether to admit new tribal citizens to participate in that effort, must be made by the Tribe in the exercise of its inherent sovereign authority, and not by the Department.

Conclusion

I have reviewed the documents referenced in this letter, as well as the numerous submissions made by Mr. Dixie and Ms. Burley to my office since the issuance of the IBIA Decision in January 2010.

I conclude that there is no need for the BIA to continue its previous efforts to organize the Tribe's government, because it is organized as a General Council, pursuant to the resolution it adopted at the suggestion of the BIA. Consequently, there is no need for the BIA to continue its previous efforts to ensure that the Tribe confers tribal citizenship upon other individual Miwok Indians in the surrounding area.

Based upon the foregoing principles of tribal sovereignty, and our government-to-government relationship with the Tribe, I am directing that the following actions be undertaken:

1. The BIA will rescind its April 2007 public notice to, "assist the California Valley Miwok Tribe, aka, Sheep Ranch Rancheria (Tribe) in its efforts to organize a formal governmental structure that is acceptable to all members."
2. The BIA will rescind its November 6, 2006 letters to Sylvia Burley and Yakima Dixie stating that the BIA will initiate the reorganization process for the California Valley Miwok Tribe.

3. I am rescinding the February 11, 2005 letter from the Office of the Assistant Secretary to Yakima Dixie stating that the BIA does not recognize any government of the California Valley Miwok Tribe.
4. The BIA will rescind its letter of March 26, 2004 to Sylvia Burley stating that it "does not yet view your tribe to be an 'organized' Indian Tribe," and indicating that Ms. Burley is merely a "person of authority" within the Tribe.
5. Both my office and the BIA will work with the Tribe's existing governing body -- its General Council, as established by Resolution # GC-98-01 -- to fulfill the government-to-government relationship between the United States and the California Valley Miwok Tribe.

My decision addresses those issues referred to my office by the decision of the IBIA.

Lastly, I recognize that issues related to membership and leadership have been significant sources of contention within the Tribe in recent years. I strongly encourage the Tribe's governing body, the General Council, to resolve these issues through internal processes so as to mitigate the need for future involvement by the Department in these matters. To this point, I understand that Resolution #GC-98-01 provides for proper notice and conduct of meetings of the General Council. I likewise encourage the Tribe's General Council to act in accord with its governing document when settling matters relating to leadership and membership, so as to bring this highly contentious period of the Tribe's history to a close.

A similar letter has been transmitted to Mr. Yakima Dixie, and his legal counsel.

Sincerely,

For Larry Echo Hawk

Dear Mr. Uram:

The Secretary has asked the Solicitor's Office to respond to your letter to him of January 6, 2011, requesting a stay and reconsideration of the decision by the Assistant Secretary - Indian Affairs regarding the organization of the California Valley Miwok Tribe. After discussing the matter with the Assistant Secretary and his staff, I have been advised that the Assistant Secretary has declined to reconsider the December 22, 2010 decision by Mr. Laverdure on his behalf.

Sincerely,

Pilar M. Thomas
Deputy Solicitor, Indian Affairs

Dear Mr. Dixie:

On December 22, 2010, my office issued a letter setting out the Department of the Interior's decision on a question respecting the composition of the California Valley Miwok Tribe. The question had been referred to my office by the Interior Board of Indian Appeals. On January 24, 2011, you filed suit in Federal district court seeking to have the Department's decision vacated.

Subsequent actions by the parties involved in this dispute have led me to reconsider the matters addressed in the December 22, 2010, decision letter. By means of today's letter, the December 22 decision is set aside.

I believe that the longstanding problems within the Tribe need prompt resolution, and I remain committed to the timely issuance of my reconsidered decision. I am mindful, however, that additional briefing may inform my analysis of the problems presented in this dispute. To that end, I will issue a briefing schedule in the coming week, requesting submissions from you and from Ms. Silvia Burley on specific questions of fact and law relevant to the referred question.

Sincerely,

Larry Echo Hawk

Dear Mr. Dixie and Ms. Burley:

The Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) and the California Valley Miwok Tribe (Tribe) have worked for years to reach a shared understanding of the structure and composition of the Tribe, its government, and its relationship with the Federal government. Disputes within the Tribe, and between the Tribal factions and the BIA, have led to several administrative appeals as well as federal court litigation. On January 28, 2010, the Interior Board of Indian Appeals (IBIA) issued a decision respecting one of the administrative appeals. The IBIA remanded to my office one of the issues raised in that appeal, as being an enrollment question and thus beyond the IBIA's jurisdiction. On December 22, 2010, my office issued a letter attempting to set out a clear and final answer to the referred question.

After the December 22, 2010, decision, a number of issues were raised in litigation that challenged that decision; therefore, I have withdrawn it for reconsideration. I would like to ensure that I consider all issues in my reconsideration of this matter. To ensure full and fair review, I am asking the parties to brief the issues. Parties may submit any legal arguments they wish for me to consider. In addition, the parties should consider addressing the following issues.

1. It is undisputed that the Federal government currently recognizes five people as members of the tribe. The September 24, 1998, letter from Superintendent Risling to Yakima Dixie, mentioned the development of enrollment criteria that "will be used to identify other persons eligible to participate in the initial organization of the Tribe" (emphasis added). Please brief your views on whether the Secretary has an obligation to ensure that potential tribal members participate in an election to organize the Tribe.
2. It is undisputed that the Tribe is federally recognized, being included on the Department's list of recognized tribes. The Tribal Resolution of November 5, 1998, signed by Ms. Burley and Mr. Dixie, said: "The Tribe, on June 12, 1935, voted to accept the terms of the Indian Reorganization Act . . . but never formally organized pursuant to federal statute, and now desires to pursue the formal organization of the Tribe." Please explain your position regarding the status of the Tribe's organization and the Federal Governments' duty to assist the Tribe in organizing.

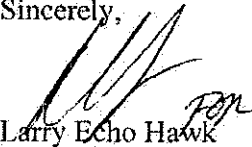

3. It is undisputed that the position taken in the December 22 decision letter represented a change in direction regarding the Bureau's relations with the Tribe. Courts have found the BIA's past actions to be permissible under the APA, but did not state that those actions were mandatory under federal Indian law. Some statements in court opinions, however, must be read as statements of law with which my decisions must comply. In particular, the D.C. Circuit stated that (paraphrased for clarity): "It cannot be that the Secretary has no role in determining whether a tribe has properly organized itself to qualify for the federal benefits provided in the [Indian Reorganization] Act and elsewhere." 515 F.3d 1262, 1267 (D.C. Cir. 2008). Please brief your views on what the Secretary's role is in "determining whether a tribe has properly organized itself."

To ensure the promptness of my reconsidered decision, please provide your submission so that it is received by the Department no later than 9:00 am, eastern daylight savings time, Tuesday, May 3, 2011.

My office will give your submissions careful and objective consideration. No outcome in this matter will resolve all the disputes between the parties, but my duty under the APA is to reach, and explain, a carefully-considered decision that is not "arbitrary and capricious," and is "in accordance with law" (5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(a)).

Please limit your submissions to no more than 30 pages. We prefer, for timeliness and convenience, that you submit your response documents in pdf format via email to Mr. Brian Newland, one of my advisors, at bryan_newland@ios.doi.gov, and Mr. Jim Porter, an attorney in Solicitor's Office, at james.porter@sol.doi.gov. Please also transmit your response documents to each other at the same time you send them to this office.

Dear Ms. Burley and Mr. Dixie:

Introduction and Decision

On December 22, 2010, I sent you a letter setting out my decision in response to a question referred to me by the Interior Board of Indian Appeals (IBIA) in California Valley Miwok Tribe v. Pacific Regional Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 51 IBIA 103 (January 28, 2010) (IBIA decision). I determined that there was “no need for the BIA to continue its previous efforts to organize the Tribe's government, because it is organized as a General Council, pursuant to the [1998 General Council Resolution] it adopted at the suggestion of the BIA.” I concluded further that there was “no need for the BIA to continue its previous efforts to ensure that the Tribe confers tribal citizenship upon other individual Miwok Indians in the surrounding area.”

I issued my December decision without providing the parties a formal opportunity to brief me on the facts and issues as they saw them. As a result of subsequent actions by both parties, I determined to withdraw the December decision, and, on April 8, 2011, I requested briefing from the parties. Counsel for the parties provided detailed responses with numerous exhibits. I appreciate the time and effort that went into providing these responses. I have considered them carefully.

Based on the litigation records in the prior Federal court actions in both California and Washington, D.C., the proceedings before the Department's Interior Board of Indian Appeals, and the material submitted in response to my April 8 letter, I now find the following:

- (1) The California Valley Miwok Tribe (CVMT) is a federally recognized tribe, and has been continuously recognized by the United States since at least 1916;
- (2) At the present date, the citizenship of the CVMT consists solely of Yakima Dixie, Silvia Burley, Rashel Reznor, Anjelica Paulk, and Tristian Wallace;

(3) The CVMT today operates under a General Council form of government, pursuant to Resolution #CG-98-01, which the CVMT passed in 1998, facilitated by representatives of the Bureau of Indian Affairs (Bureau or BIA)(1998 General Council Resolution);

(4) Pursuant to the 1998 General Council Resolution, the CVMT's General Council is vested with the governmental authority of the Tribe, and may conduct the full range of government-to-government relations with the United States;

(5) Although this current General Council form of government does not render CVMT an "organized" tribe under the Indian Reorganization Act (IRA) (see e.g., 25 U.S.C. 476(a) and (d)), as a federally recognized tribe it is not required "to organize" in accord with the procedures of the IRA (25 U.S.C. § 476(h));

(6) Under the IRA, as amended, it is impermissible for the Federal government to treat tribes not "organized" under the IRA differently from those "organized" under the IRA (25 U.S.C. §§ 476(f)-(h)); and

(7) As discussed in more detail below, with respect to finding (6), on this particular legal point, I specifically diverge with a key underlying rationale of past decisions by Department of the Interior (Department) officials dealing with CVMT matters, apparently beginning around 2004, and decide to pursue a different policy direction.¹ Under the circumstances of this case, it is inappropriate to invoke the Secretary's broad authority to manage "all Indian affairs and [] all matters arising out of Indian relations," 25 U.S.C. § 2, or any other broad-based authority, to justify interfering with the CVMT's internal governance. Such interference would run counter to the bedrock Federal Indian law principles of tribal sovereignty and tribal self-government, according to which the tribe, as a distinct political entity, may "manag[e] its own affairs and govern[] itself," Cherokee Nation v. Georgia, 30 U.S. 1, 16 (1832); and would conflict with this Administration's clear commitment to protect and honor tribal sovereignty.

Obviously, the December 2010 decision, and today's reaffirmation of that decision, mark a 180-degree change of course from positions defended by this Department in administrative and judicial proceedings over the past seven years. This change is driven by a straightforward correction in the Department's understanding of the California Valley Miwok Tribe's citizenship and a different policy perspective on the Department's legal obligations in light of those facts.

As discussed below, the BIA clearly understood in 1998 that the acknowledged CVMT citizens had the right to exercise the Tribe's inherent sovereign power in a manner they chose. It is unfortunate that soon after the 1998 General Council Resolution was enacted, an intra-tribal leadership dispute erupted, and both sides of the dispute found, at various points in time in the intervening years, that it served their respective interests to raise the theory that the BIA had a duty to protect the rights of approximately 250 "potential citizens" of the Tribe. A focus on that theory has shaped the BIA's and the Department's position on the citizenship question ever since. By contrast, today's decision clears away the misconceptions that these individuals have inchoate citizenship rights that the Secretary has a duty to protect. They do not. The Tribe is not comprised of both citizens and potential citizens. Rather, the five acknowledged citizens are the only citizens of the Tribe, and the General Council of the Tribe has the exclusive authority to determine the citizenship criteria for the Tribe. Santa Clara Pueblo v. Martinez, 436 U.S. 49, 57 (1978). I believe this change in the Department's position is the most suitable means of resolving this decade-long dispute and is in accord with principles of administrative law. Nat'l Cable & Telecomms. Ass'n v. Brand X Internet Servs., 545 U.S. 967 (2005).

Background

This decision is necessitated by a long and complex tribal leadership dispute that resulted in extensive administrative and judicial litigation. Much of the factual background is set out in the prior decisions, so it is not necessary to repeat or even summarize all of it here.

The history of this Tribe, and the record of this case to date, demonstrates the following:

- The CVMT is a federally recognized tribe, 74 Fed. Reg. 40,218, 40,219 (Aug. 11, 2009);
- In 1916, the United States purchased approximately 0.92 acres in Calaveras County, California, for the benefit of 12 named Indians living on the Sheepranch Rancheria (now Sheep Ranch)(Rancheria) (51 IBIA at 106);
- The Indian Agent, who in 1915 recommended the purchase of the 0.92 acres, described the group of 12 named individuals as “the remnant of once quite a large band of Indians in former years living in and near the old decaying mining town known and designated on the map as ‘Sheepranch.’” Id.;
- The record shows only one adult Indian lived on the Rancheria in 1935, a Jeff Davis, who voted “in favor of the IRA” Id.;
- In 1966, the record shows only one adult Indian, Mabel Hodge Dixie, Yakima Dixie's mother, lived on the Rancheria, when the BIA crafted a plan for distribution of tribal assets pursuant to the California Rancheria Act of 1958, Pub. L. No. 85-671, 72 Stat. 619, as amended by Act of Aug. 11, 1964, Pub. L. No. 88-419, 78 Stat. 390;
- Mabel Hodge Dixie was to be the sole distributee of tribal assets under the 1966 Rancheria distribution plan;
- While the Bureau initiated the process to terminate the Tribe, it never declared the Tribe terminated and has never treated the Tribe as if it had been terminated;
- In 1994, Yakima Dixie wrote the BIA asking for assistance with home repairs and describing himself as “the only descendant and recognized . . . member of the Tribe.” (51 IBIA at 107);
- At some point during the 1990s, Silvia Burley “contacted BIA for information related to her Indian heritage, which BIA provided, and by 1998—at BIA's suggestion—Burley had contacted Yakima[]” Dixie (as the IBIA has noted, “it appears that Burley may trace her ancestry to a ‘Jeff Davis’ who was listed on the 1913 census. . . .”) 51 IBIA at 107, including footnote 7;
- On August 5, 1998, Mr. Dixie “signed a statement accepting Burley as an enrolled member of the Tribe, and also enrolling Burley's two daughters and her granddaughter.” Id.;

- The Tribe was not organized pursuant to the IRA prior to 1998 and did not have organic documents setting out its form of government or criteria for tribal citizenship;
- In September of 1998, BIA staff met with Mr. Dixie and Ms. Burley “to discuss organizing the Tribe,” and on September 24, 1998 sent follow-up correspondence recommending that, “given the small size of the Tribe, we recommend that the Tribe operate as a General Council,” which could elect or appoint a chairperson and conduct business. Id. at 108;
- On November 5, 1998, Mr. Dixie and Ms. Burley signed a resolution establishing a General Council, which consisted of all adult citizens of the Tribe, to serve as the governing body of the Tribe. Id. at 109;
- Less than five months later, leadership disputes arose between Mr. Dixie and Ms. Burley—and those conflicts have continued to the present day;²
- Initially the BIA recognized Mr. Dixie as Chairman, but later recognized Ms. Burley as Chairperson based primarily upon the April 1999 General Council action appointing Ms. Burley as Chairperson - an action concurred in by Mr. Dixie. Id.;
- Mr. Dixie later challenged Ms. Burley’s 1999 appointment;
- In 2002, Ms. Burley filed suit in the name of the Tribe alleging that the Department had breached its trust responsibility to the Tribe by distributing the assets of the Rancheria to a single individual, Mabel Dixie, when the Tribe had a potential citizenship of “nearly 250 people[.]” See Complaint for Injunctive and Declaratory Relief at 1, Cal. Valley Miwok Tribe v. United States, No. 02-0912 (E.D. Cal. Apr. 29, 2002);
- In March, 2004, the BIA Superintendent rejected a proposed constitution from Ms. Burley because she had not involved the “whole tribal community” in the governmental organization process;
- On February 11, 2005, the Acting Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs issued a decision on Mr. Dixie’s 1999 appeal, ruling that the appeal of the Bureau’s 1999 decision to recognize Ms. Burley as Chairperson was moot and that the BIA would recognize Ms. Burley only as a person of authority within the Tribe;
- Ms. Burley sued in D.C. District Court challenging the February 2005 decision;
- After the District Court dismissed her challenge, Cal. Valley Miwok Tribe v. United States, 424 F.Supp. 2d 197 (D.D.C. 2006), the D. C. Circuit Court of Appeals affirmed, Cal. Valley Miwok Tribe v. United States, 515 F.3d 1262 (D.C. Cir. 2008);
- In January 2010, the IBIA rejected Ms. Burley’s appeal objecting to, among other matters, the Superintendent’s decision to continue to assist the Tribe in organizing its government according to the IRA because it viewed the matter as “effectively and functionally a tribal enrollment dispute,” and then referred the matter to me on jurisdictional grounds.

In response to the Board’s referral, I issued my December 22, 2010 decision letter. I intended that decision to resolve the citizenship question referred to me by the IBIA by finding that the current Tribe’s citizenship consisted of the five acknowledged citizens noted above and recognizing the Tribe’s General Council as a tribal government with which the United States may conduct government-to-government relations. Almost immediately, Mr. Dixie filed suit in the D.C. District Court challenging that decision. Recognizing the complex and fundamental nature of the underlying issues, and because I desired the benefit of submissions from the interested parties, I set aside that decision and requested formal briefing.

² I note that the Department repeatedly has offered to assist in mediating this dispute—to no avail. The amount of time and resources focused on these disputes reflects poorly on all the parties, and they must be mindful that continuing this imprudent dispute risks potential adverse consequences well beyond the Tribe and its citizens.

The submissions by the parties in response to my request were thorough. I have carefully reviewed the submissions and find they were most helpful in enhancing my understanding of the parties' positions.

Analysis

It is clear to me that the heart of this matter is a misapprehension about the nature and extent of the Secretary's role, if any, in determining tribal citizenship of a very small, uniquely situated tribe. Related to this issue is the Tribe's current reluctance to "organize" itself under the IRA, choosing instead to avail itself of the provisions in 25 U.S.C. § 476(h), first enacted in 2004, which recognizes the inherent sovereign powers of tribes "to adopt governing documents under procedures other than those specified . . . [in the IRA.]"

Applicability of General Legal Authorities of the Secretary of the Interior in Indian Affairs

The D.C. Circuit viewed § 476(h) as ambiguous, and then granted Chevron deference to the then-Secretary's interpretation of that provision. 513 F.3d at 1266-68. The D.C. Circuit put great weight on the Secretary's broad authority over Indian affairs under 25 U.S.C. § 2, writing that "[w]e have previously held that this extensive grant of authority gives the Secretary broad power to carry out the federal government's unique responsibilities with respect to Indians." Id. at 1267, citations omitted. In addition to § 2, 25 U.S.C. §§ 9, and 13, and 43 U.S.C. § 1457, are often cited as the main statutory bases for the Department's general authority in Indian affairs. Cal. Valley Miwok Tribe v. United States, 424 F.Supp. 2d 197, 201 (D.D.C. 2006); see also COHEN'S HANDBOOK OF FEDERAL INDIAN LAW § 5.03[2] at 405 (2005 ed.) [hereinafter COHEN]. The D.C. Circuit also cited two cases involving separate bands of the Seminole Nation for the general propositions that the United States has an "obligation" "to promote a tribe's political integrity" as well as "the responsibility to ensure that [a tribe's] representatives, with whom [it] must conduct government-to-government relations, are valid representatives of the [tribe] as a whole." 513 F.3d at 1267 (emphasis added by the Court), citing, Seminole Nation v. United States, 313 U.S. 286, 296 (1942), and Seminole Nation of Oklahoma v. Norton, 223 F.Supp. 2d 122, 140 (D.D.C. 2002).

In my view, prior Department officials misapprehended their responsibility when they: (1) took their focus off the fact that the CVMT was comprised a five individuals, and (2) mistakenly viewed the Federal government as having particular duties relating to individuals who were not citizens of the tribe. I decline to invoke the broad legal authorities cited above to further intrude into internal tribal citizenship and governance issues in the instant case. In making this decision, I also am mindful of the Supreme Court's recent guidance concerning: (1) the importance of identifying "specific rights creating or duty-imposing statutory or regulatory prescriptions" before concluding the United States is obligated to act in a particular manner in Indian affairs, and (2) the central role Federal policy plays in administering Indian affairs. United States v. Jicarilla Apache Nation, 131 S. Ct. 2313, 2323-24, 2326-27 (June 13, 2011).

Application of Specific Legal Authorities

In my view, prior Department officials (from 2003 to the present) fundamentally misunderstood the role of the Federal government in addressing the CVMT citizenship and governance issues: (1) they misunderstood and ignored the legal authority of CVMT to govern itself through its General Council structure without being compelled to “organize” under the IRA; and (2) they confused the Federal government’s obligations to possible tribal citizens with those owed to actual tribal citizens.

The February 11, 2005, decision of Acting Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs Michael D. Olsen stated that, until the Tribe organized itself, the Department could not recognize anyone as the Tribe’s Chairperson, and that the “first step in organizing the Tribe is identifying the putative tribal members.” (2005 Decision at 1-2, discussed in 51 IBIA at 112). The D.C. Circuit, after citing the Secretary’s broad authority under 25 U.S.C. § 2, endorsed this approach as a reasonable interpretation of 25 U.S.C. § 476(h) because “[t]he exercise of this authority is especially vital when, as is the case here, the government is determining whether a tribe is organized, and the receipt of significant federal benefits turns on the decision.” 515 F.3d at 1267. As I have stated above, I reject as contrary to § 476(h) the notions that a tribe can be compelled to “organize” under the IRA and that a tribe not so organized can have “significant federal benefits” withheld from it. Either would be a clear violation of 25 U.S.C. § 476(f).

The CVMT currently consists of the five citizens identified above. Under the current facts, the Department does not have a legitimate role in attempting to force the Tribe to expand its citizenship.³ Department officials previously referred to “the importance of participation of a greater tribal community in determining citizenship criteria.” (Superintendent’s 2004 Decision at 3, discussed in 51 IBIA at 111-112). The D.C. Circuit, referring to the Tribe’s governance structure that arguably would maintain a limited citizenship, stated “[t]his antimajoritarian gambit deserves no stamp of approval from the Secretary.” 515 F.3d at 1267. However, I know of no specific statutory or regulatory authority that warrants such intrusion into a federally recognized tribe’s internal affairs. (As to the more general sources of authority cited in support of Federal oversight of tribal matters, I have explained my views on the proper scope of those authorities above). “Courts have consistently recognized that one of an Indian tribe’s most basic powers is the authority to determine questions of its own membership.” Santa Clara Pueblo v. Martinez, 436 U.S. 49, 57, 72 n.32 (1978); United States v. Wheeler, 435 U.S., 313, 322 n.18 (1978); COHEN § 3.03[3] at 176, citations omitted. “[I]f the issue for which the determination is important involves internal affairs of the Indian nation, it is more consistent with principles of tribal sovereignty to defer to that nation’s definition.” Id. at 180. As discussed in the previous paragraph, I also believe that, based on an incorrect interpretation of § 476(h), the previous Administration’s views on the IRA’s application to this case were erroneous and led to an improper focus on expanding the size of the Tribe and altering the form of its government.

³ While I believe that it is equitably appropriate for the CVMT General Council to reach out to potential citizens of the Tribe, I do not believe it is proper, as a matter of law, for the Federal government to attempt to impose such a requirement on a federally recognized tribe.

Mr. Dixie invokes the Alan-Wilson IBIA cases to support the theory that the Secretary has a duty to ensure that the potential citizens are involved in the organization of an unorganized, but federally recognized tribe.⁴ 30 IBIA 241. But, in fact, Alan-Wilson works directly against Mr. Dixie's position, and this distinction provides additional support for my decision. Unlike CVMT, the Cloverdale Rancheria was a federally recognized tribe terminated under the California Rancheria Act. It was later restored pursuant to the Tillie Hardwick litigation and settlement, which required the Rancheria to organize its tribal government under the IRA.

30 IBIA 241, 248.

My review of the history of the CVMT compels the conclusion set out in the December decision and reaffirmed here: the CVMT has been continuously recognized, and its political relationship with the Federal government has not been terminated. The five acknowledged citizens are the only current citizens of the Tribe, and the Tribe's General Council is authorized to exercise the Tribe's governmental authority. In this case, again, the factual record is clear: there are only five citizens of CVMT. The Federal government is under no duty or obligation to "potential citizens" of the CVMT. Those potential citizens, if they so desire, should take up their cause with the CVMT General Council directly.

Given both parties' acknowledgment of the existence of other individuals who could potentially become tribal citizens, the Department's prior positions are understandable. The Department endeavored to engage both parties in a resolution of the tribal citizenship issues, including offers of assistance from the Department's Office of Collaborative Action and Dispute Resolution (CADR) – to no avail. By the time this matter was referred to me by the IBIA in January 2010, serious doubts existed about the likelihood of the parties ever being able to work together to resolve the issues involving the citizenship and governance of the Tribe.

Absent an express commitment from the parties to formally define tribal citizenship criteria, any further effort by the Department to do so would result in an unwarranted intrusion into the internal affairs of the Tribe. Moreover, given the unfortunate history of this case, most likely such efforts would not succeed in accomplishing this objective. While there may be rare circumstances in which such an intrusion would be warranted in order for the Secretary to discharge specific responsibilities, no such specific law or circumstances exist here.

Accordingly, unless asked by the CVMT General Council, the Department will make no further efforts to assist the Tribe to organize and define its citizenship. I accept the Resolution #GC-98-01 as the interim governing document of the Tribe, and as the basis for resuming government-to-government relations between the United States and the Tribe.

While I appreciate that the General Council Resolution may prove lacking as to certain aspects of tribal governance, I also recognize that this tribe is very small and uniquely situated. Many tribes have been able to govern effectively with limited or no written governing documents.

⁴ Mr. Dixie also invokes the case of Seminole Nation of Oklahoma v. Norton, 223 F.Supp.2d 122 (D.D.C. 2002) in support of his position. Seminole Nation involved a dispute where a particular faction of the Tribe asserted rights to tribal citizenship under an 1866 treaty. Id. at 138. There is no overriding treaty or congressional enactment governing tribal citizenship at issue in this dispute.

Conclusion

Based upon the foregoing analysis, I re-affirm the following:

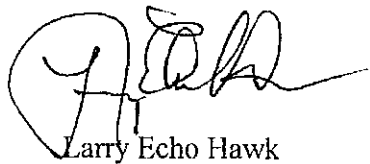

- CVMT is a federally recognized tribe whose entire citizenship, as of this date, consists of the five acknowledged citizens;
- The 1998 Resolution established a General Council form of government, comprised of all the adult citizens of the Tribe, with whom the Department may conduct government-to-government relations;
- The Department shall respect the validly enacted resolutions of the General Council; and
- Only upon a request from the General Council will the Department assist the Tribe in refining or expanding its citizenship criteria, or developing and adopting other governing documents.

In my December 2010 decision letter I rescinded several earlier decisions. I am persuaded that such attempts to rewrite history are fraught with the risk of unintended consequences. Past actions, undertaken in good faith and in reliance on the authority of prior Agency decisions, should not be called into question by today's determination that those prior Agency decisions were erroneous. Thus, today's decision shall apply prospectively.

This decision is final for the Department and effective immediately, but implementation shall be stayed pending resolution of the litigation in the District Court for the District of Columbia, California Valley Miwok Tribe v. Salazar, C.A. No. 1:11-cv-00160-RWR (filed 03/16/11).

Finally, I strongly encourage the parties to work within the Tribe's existing government structure to resolve this longstanding dispute and bring this contentious period in the Tribe's history to a close.

Sincerely,

Larry Echo Hawk
Assistant Secretary -- Indian Affairs

WHEREAS, we, the members of the National Congress of American Indians of the United States, invoking the divine blessing of the Creator upon our efforts and purposes, in order to preserve for ourselves and our descendants the inherent sovereign rights of our Indian nations, rights secured under Indian treaties and agreements with the United States, and all other rights and benefits to which we are entitled under the laws and Constitution of the United States, to enlighten the public toward a better understanding of the Indian people, to preserve Indian cultural values, and otherwise promote the health, safety and welfare of the Indian people, do hereby establish and submit the following resolution; and

WHEREAS, the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) was established in 1944 and is the oldest and largest national organization of American Indian and Alaska Native tribal governments; and

WHEREAS, the bedrock federal Indian law principle of tribal sovereignty is that each Indian Nation, as a distinct political entity, may “manag[e] its own affairs and govern itself,” Cherokee Nation v. Georgia, 30 U.S. 1, 16 (1832); and

WHEREAS, in Santa Clara Pueblo v. Martinez, 436 U.S. 49 (1978), the United States Supreme Court ruled that governance of the citizenship laws of an Indian tribe is an internal matter, and that Indian tribes have an absolute right to determine their own citizenship; and

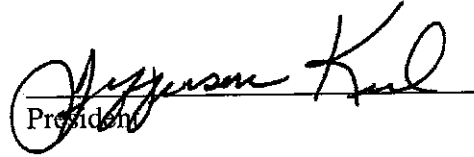

WHEREAS, tribal control over tribal citizenship is necessary to protect tribal culture, tradition and society.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, consistent with the holdings of Assistant Secretary Echo Hawk’s August 31, 2011 decision, NCAI strongly supports the right of all Indian Nations to determine their own citizenship, and opposes any effort by state or federal governments or courts to interfere with tribal internal decision making; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution shall be the policy of NCAI until it is withdrawn or modified by subsequent resolution.

CERTIFICATION

The foregoing resolution was adopted by the General Assembly at the 2011 Annual Session of the National Congress of American Indians, held at the Oregon Convention Center in Portland, Oregon on October 30 – November 4, 2011, with a quorum present.

President
