Indians of California"

Dear Chairperson Burley:

Thank you for your letter dated April 9, 2001, regarding the Tribal Council's desire to change the name of the Sheep Ranch Rancheria of Me-Wuk Indians of California to the California Valley Murok Tribe. You have received conflicting information on how to accomplish the name change so you've requested us to clarify the matter.

The Sheep Ranch Rancheria (Tribe) is a small tribe that does not have a tribal constitution. The Tribe has a tribal council and conducts tribal business through resolution. A tribal resolution, such as resolution No. R-1-5-07-201, enacted by the Tribal Council on May 7, 2001, is sufficient to effect the tribal name change. The Tribe's new name has been included on the Tribal Entities List that will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER later this year.

Some tribes have constitutions that contain a provision that specifically states the tribe's official name. In that situation, the tribe will have to amend that particular provision in the constitution before the new name will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. On the other hand, if the tribal constitution does not contain a provision that sets out the tribe's official name, an amendment to the constitution is unnecessary. In such instances, the tribe can change its name by enacting a tribal ordinance to establish its official name.

We hope that this information resolves the matter for you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sharon Blackwell

Dear Ms. Burley:

After receiving confirmation of your tribe's name change from the United States Department of the Interior, the Internal Revenue Service made a name change for the previously known Sheep Ranch Tribe of Me-Wuk Indians, EIN 94-3340635. The new name shall read California Valley Miwok Tribe. The name change did not necessitate a new Employer Identification Number (EIN).

Please call me if I can answer or help clarify any questions you may have regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Chairperson Burley,

The Office of Indian Tribal Governments is responsible for the administration of federal tax laws as they relate to federally recognized Indian tribes and their entities. To assist in our efforts, we seek to partner with tribes to improve our operations to ensure that we effectively address federal tax issues while minimizing intrusion and burden.

As part of that process, we recently mailed a survey to Colleen Whittle, Bookkeeper of your staff, and asked for their input on our performance, as well as their suggestions on how we may better serve the federal tax administration needs of California Valley Miwok Tribe.

If you have any questions or comments about this survey please feel free to contact me at (202) 283-9800, or you may write to us at the address shown above. Thank you for the valuable time of your staff to help the office of Indian Tribal Governments better serve your needs.

Sincerely,

Christie Jacobs
Director

YOUR 2009 FEDERAL TAX DEPOSIT REQUIREMENTS

This letter explains your Form 941 federal tax deposit requirements for 2009. No response is needed, but please review the following information carefully. In October, we determined your deposit requirements for 2009 from the total taxes you reported on your Forms 941 for the previous four quarter lookback period shown below.

Quarter Ending	Liability for Quarter
Sept 30, 2007
Dec 31, 2007
Mar 31, 2008	Redacted
June 30, 2008
Total

Monthly Schedule Depositor - You are a monthly depositor because your tax liability in the lookback quarters totaled $50,000 or less. This means that when you pay wages for any one month, your deposit is due by the 15th day of the following month. NOTE: If the above quarterly liability amounts differ from your quarterly tax records, then it is your responsibility to determine which deposit schedule you should follow. See the enclosed Notice 931 for more information about deposit rules.

$100,000 Next-Day Deposit Rule - If your accumulated Form 941 tax liability reaches $100,000 or more at any time during a calendar month, your deposit is due by the next banking day. After that, you must make your deposits semi-weekly rather than monthly. Semi-weekly means that if you pay wages on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, your deposit is due by the following Wednesday. If you pay wages on Saturday, Sunday, Monday, or Tuesday, your deposit is due by the following Friday. If your accumulated Form 941 tax liability reaches $100,000 or more at any time during a semi-weekly period, your deposit is due the next banking day.

$2,500 Rule - If your total tax liability for any quarter is less than $2,500, you can pay the amount when you file your Form 941 instead of making deposits. If you're not sure your total liability for the quarter will be less than $2,500, deposit using the monthly rules so you won't be subject to failure to deposit penalties.
